Citizen Comments:

- Amy Musil presented her vision for the Indian Lake Boardwalk Project. The investment and project estimates are over $3.6 million with the goal to create a family-friendly gathering space with waterfront views, restaurants, music and outdoor activities. The boardwalk would encourage urban revitalization and economic growth with an increase in demand for dining, shopping, lodging and transportation services. Ms. Musil expressed her desire to bring back the "million-dollar playground" to Russells Point.
- Robin Michaels inquired about the property at 116 Walnut owned by Trinity Erevia. The property was damaged by the 2024 tornado and is scheduled to be demolished via the land trust program.

Old Business:

- Council reviewed the village clean-up day guidelines and restrictions. The clean-up day is scheduled for November 5, 2025 and all items must be placed curbside by 6:00 AM on that day or the evening prior. Applications for collection must be completed by residents. There is a limit of a "reasonable amount" that can be safely and efficiently collected. Residents may place up to 2 large items (furniture, mattresses) out for collection by scheduling in advance with the village.

New Business:

- Council reviewed the Mosca Design quote for village Christmas banners. The quote consists of 3 different banner designs and to purchase a quantity of 7 banners from each design at a cost of $910.14. Council also reviewed the Christmas Done Bright quote for 3 inflatable Christmas decorations/lights for $3,615. The majority of Council agreed that the Mayor should purchase the Christmas banners and decorations/lights. Mayor Huffman stated that village resident Rick Landis is donating a 12-14' Christmas tree to the village. Council thanked Mr. Landis for the tree.
