

Fergus, Evelyn R.

Evelyn Ruby Fergus, 90, a lifelong Yale area resident died Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2009, at Courtney Manor Nursing Facility, Bad Axe.

She was born Thanksgiving day, Thursday, Nov. 28, 1918, in Greenwood Township the daughter of the late Earnest and Nellie Weston Gottsleben.

Her marriage to Earl Fergus was Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1941, in Greenwood Township at her home.

He preceded her in death on Monday, May 16, 1994.

Evelyn was a homemaker and a lifelong member of Greenwood United Methodist Church, Greenwood Township.

Surviving is a sister-in-law, Alice Gottsleben of Bad Axe, and her four daughters.

Evelyn will be greatly missed by life-long friends, Alrene Roberts, Marge Holly, Rich and Helen Marie (Pudge) Cummings.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Edwin.

Her family honors the memory of Evelyn, they are you to visiting and share from 4 to 7 p.m.

Friday at Yale United Methodist Church, 2 S. Main Street. Visitation will also take place at noon until the service time at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 21,2009 with the Rev. Lisa Clark, associate pastor of Capac United Methodist Churches officiating. Burial will be in Elmwood Cemetery, Yale.

Memorials are suggested to "Yale United Methodist Church". For information and guest book go to www.kaatzfunerals.com.