

BE MY FRIEND

John 15:15 - "No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; for I have called you friends, for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you. " (NKJV)

"I am a faithful friend. I have always loved you and been there for you. I was always around, even when you did not know Me, or when you thought you were facing difficult times alone. It is My everlasting love that drew you to Me. I always was and I always will be. I have loved you like no other friend has or will; I have loved you with an everlasting love. I love the way you serve Me, obey Me, and call Me Lord; I love the way you love Me and how you trust Me to be Your Provider, Protector, Healer and Guide; but can you call Me "Friend"? I really want to hear the secrets of your heart and I so love to share with you the depths of Mine. Friends talk and trust each other with secrets. There are many things I love to show you simply because I see you as My friend.

I am looking for faithful friends, ones who will stay by Me even when the road gets rough or when they cannot see the way ahead. I want friends who love Me not only when they hear My voice and have answers to prayers, but always; friends who will stand with Me and identify with everything I am, regardless of what others say. Faithful friends are hard to find (Proverbs 20:6) but I know I have found that friend in you.

Today I break that spirit of slavery off your heart and mind and I release you into true friendship with Me. You once invited Me into your heart. I now invite you into Mine! Come into My heart; come into My world and you will begin to see everything differently. Everything I have from the Father, I am making available to you because you are My dear and precious friend. There is a whole new world of glory to see, the wonders of the Deep, as I bring you into Me. So come to Me dear one and let Me be your dearest friend; come into fellowship with Me. I love to listen to all you have to say, but I also love to talk and to share new things with you each day. Can you take the time to really know Me and to hear My heart? Can you come and listen to what I have to say to you?

My precious friend, you have always been the joy of My heart and I find such real delight in spending time with you. I see you in all the beauty of your heavenly calling, your new and holy nature which you have found through faith in Me. I want you to know that you are beautiful, loveable and so cherished by Me, My dear and much loved friend, so no more slavery. Let Me place My mind on you, and break the lies that have clung to you. Receive My friendship, receive My love You are a vital, part of My family!"

Dear friend of Jesus, Psalm 25:14 tells us that the Lord confides in those who fear Him. The reverence and acknowledgement of the Lordship of Jesus opens the way to true friendship with Him. God has so much more in store for you and the Holy Spirit is calling you into a depth of fellowship and revelation which we can enter into through worship and prayer. My prayer for you today is that you will draw nearer to our Lord and friend, and know Him as we are known – closely, intimately, and with no hindrances between us. He is the best and most beautiful friend, the one who sticks closer than a brother (Proverbs 18:24). Whatever your need may be right now, let me remind you that Jesus loves you and is close to you. He has promised that He will never leave you or forsake you, and when He is for you, no one can win against you. So stand up and receive His grace upon your life today. Be healed, be free, be filled, be blessed, in Jesus' mighty name, amen!
