The Breath Before the Blast

“And for centuries men and women, youth and children, have come from east and west, north and south, and gather around Christ’s table, for this is the joyful, welcoming feast of the people of God. Here Christ is host and we are guest.” From Sunday’s service. My question is, if we truly believe these why do we fast on the other three Sundays?

NOTES: Worship/Music Ministry meeting on May 24 - Heather Tower

Our first meeting in person was lively!

It was decided to take turns setting up and taking down the service each week at 9am.

The pop-up tent will be erected each week over the piano to shelter our pianist from the hot sun.

We will use outlets in the kitchen for the electronics, thus shifting the service to the shady side of the parking lot.

There will be greeters each Sunday to hand out bulletins and any other information needed for the service.

Due to the difficulty in hearing people who share their joys and concerns, Rosemary will come to them to ensure she gets it all, and a basket with paper and pen will be placed along with the bulletin and offering basket so people can write their notes.

A new microphone is to be purchased for outside as the current one is not sufficient.

As restrictions are being lifted, we will once again have guest musicians on some Sundays.

The next meeting will be June 28 at 4pm at church.

My mind rejects the absurdity of the cross
Given in love, and the desire for fellowship.
A God, himself crucified

for me.
