

Anita Helen Wolfe
October 26, 1953 - February 7, 2025

Anita passed away peacefully at age 71 on February 7th, 2025 in Newcastle. Anita was born October 26, 1953, in Newcastle to Ray E. and Helen G. Wolfe. Anita was the middle child with two siblings, Gary Wolfe and Kim (Wolfe, Fox) Stolz. Anita moved with her family to Montana when she was 13. She married John Anthony Hipp on May 19, 1973. Anita and John divorced on October 16, 1974, and with the union, they had one daughter, Katina. Anita worked several jobs in her lifetime, she lastly was self-employed as the owner of Skeeter's Enterprises providing an array of services that included caregiving, housekeeping, yard maintenance, and landscaping. Anita was an avid gardener, growing flowers, and decorative plants as well as vegetables, fruits, and berries. Anita rescued numerous animals during her lifetime, including horses, dogs, and cats. Anita's greatest gifts and joy were her daughter, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Anita moved back to Newcastle in 2013 to be near her daughter and grandchildren.

Anita is survived by her daughter Katina (Jerry) Varner; grandson Christopher (Trisha) Simon; granddaughter Makayla (Nathan) Streeter; great-grandchildren Noah and Rowan Simon, Kaydance, Adysun, Taegan and Aceik Streeter; brother Gary (Pam) Wolfe; sister Kim (Kevin) Stolz and a corgi named Buddy. Anita was preceded in death by her parents Helen and Ray Wolfe and numerous beloved pets.

Services will be held on Saturday, May 3rd, 2025 at the Four Corners Country Church near Newcastle at 2:00 p.m. and following the service, the family will host a reception at the Newcastle Country Club. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Supporters of Abuse Free Environments (S.A.F.E.) P.O. Box 534, Hamilton, MT 59840, or the Weston County Humane Society, 115 Cambria St., Newcastle, WY. 82701.