Blue Lake Walk To Emmaus #45, Table of Mark.

“What’s in your wallet?” That is the catch phrase for a commercial that is running today on TV. I got to thinking about what is in my wallet. Well let me tell you what I found; $9 (which is a lot for me), driver’s license, Power Company and military ID’s, a credit card, a debit card, a calendar and pictures of the kids and grandkids. I carry what are my priorities in my wallet.

At Sunday school the other day someone asked “What’s in your prayers?” That really got me to thinking. Let’s see, I prayed for my brother in Iraq, that my kids would be safe from harm, especially the one on the SWAT team, for my family, friends, church, Emmaus, Chrysalis....and while you are at it Lord let me win the lottery too. Priorities again.

A couple of years ago at an Emmaus function during our prayer session, Wayne Hall asked for prayers for Saddam Hussein. My first reaction was not to waste our time and effort on him. But as the Spirit worked on me I realized maybe if we had prayed for Saddam a little earlier: the Spirit would have worked on him and a lot of pain and suffering could have been prevented.

What is in your prayers?

New Year, New Look

This year's The Fourth Day newsletters have a new look. This change in format will save our volunteers time and resources, but we have had to cut back on some of the information presented to fit the smaller paper size.

As always, you can find more information about the upcoming Walks and the Central Alabama Emmaus Community by going to www.caew.org.

Please let us know your comments about these changes by sending an email to info@caew.org or by calling Dorann Frazer. Thanks for being a part of the Central Alabama Emmaus community and we'll see you at the upcoming walks this year. De Colores!
