Biography

Robert B. Sierzputowski, (Bob Siers), 71, of Bad Axe, passed peacefully at his home on November 10, 2021. He was born on April 3, 1950 in Cass City, MI to the late Benjamin and Stella (Kopec) Sierzputowski. Bob grew up splitting time between the Detroit area and the Thumb and he attended Ubly High School. Bob was a talented musician and shared his gift as an accordion player for the Coachman band for 20 plus years. He also helped many kids find their own love for playing music while working for Kohn's Music Store in Sandusky. A jack of all trades, Bob had many other jobs throughout his life, notably working many years at Rooster Ranch in Ubly. He will be remembered for his creativity, sense of humor, and great conversations. He was a loyal friend to those close to him. He loved to cook, and perfected many Polish dishes and sweets that he was always ready to share. Bob's many interests included playing cards, going to the casino, meeting with the coffee crew, and enjoying time spending time with his friends and loved ones.
