"You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father in My name, He may give you" (John 15:16).

From the dawning of Time, He saw you and loved you, and He had you on His heart. He wanted you and chose you to be His own. As He breathed His Spirit upon you and drew you into this covenant of eternal love, He watched you thrive and grow like a healthy plant (Ezekiel 16:7), and He delighted in what I saw. All the days ordained for you were an open book before Him (Psalm 139:16).

You have been believing that you came seeking after Him, but did you know that it was He who chose you? He chose you to enjoy relationship with Him. He chose you to walk in the fullness of your divine calling, your heavenly personality. You are appointed for a purpose and a time such as this. You were called to be a worshiper and a carrier of His presence, an instrument of healing and peace.

Precious child, nothing that has happened in your life is without a purpose. There is no futility in any past experience. Your life is a glorious, colorful tapestry and that He has been weaving His light into even those things that were brought by the enemy. There are three things He is asking of you this day:

1) Let Him never hear you say again that you are not good enough or unprepared, or that you cannot be the effective person He sees you to be. He chose you precious one, and that's the final word! His is with you, and if He sees the beauty, potential and power in you, then there is absolutely nothing impossible for you.

In Jesus name- break every spirit of negative expectation and every negative word that affected you, and declare over yourself today that you can indeed do all things with Him. You are strong in His power and you surely will be all that He has called you to be. You are beautiful and wonderful and able. You are valued and wanted – never forget the Lord has chosen you!

2) Let Him never hear you say again that you are without direction or that your life has no meaning. Your life has meaning, purpose and direction because He has appointed you and called you to be worshiper of Truth and the ever shining carrier of His light. He has placed His anointing upon you and covered you with His hand. He is guiding you in the path of your destiny. Those deep desires within your heart are the resonance of His dreams for you, and if you trust Him precious one, together you will see them all fulfilled. Go to Him. Let Him tap into your heart and He will give you an idea of the blue print He see's. Remember, as you live in Him, there is no lack of purpose, and never any futility.

3) Let Him never hear you say again that your life is fruitless because He has called you to be fruitful and multiply in everything you set your hand to. It delights His heart to see His children prosper, and to see them walking in the full revelation of who they are, the much loved children of the Ruler and King. Begin to change the way you think of Him. Purpose in heart to not allow those things to dictate you anymore. See Him as your benevolent, loving Father who only wants good things for His child.

Precious one, He has such good plans for you and they are plans to prosper and to blossom you. In your character, gifting, and every other aspect of your life, He wants to see you grow. He wants to see you bearing fruit that lasts and this is just as much a statement about Him as it is about you. This day cancel every assignment against your health, your finances, your life and work and ministry. Break the spirit of barrenness that was only able to stay because you believed it had a legal right to. Renounce it, cast it out, and refuse to confess it. Instead, welcome His kiss of blessing as a heavenly gift on every part of your life. You must be in complete agreement with His Word for your abundant increase! He is calling you into your season of prosperity. He is releasing you into the blessing of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, into your destiny as the joint inheritor of everything that belongs to Him!

You are so loved and wanted. You are appointed and anointed. You were handpicked and lovingly chosen by Him, to be ever drawn towards greater glory. Let these words sink into you and be sealed in your heart for eternity!
