

SDX knows post-acute care, and we know aspiration doesn't always happen in the first 3 minutes. Because we offer endoscopy and not radiation like a modified barium swallow, SDX FEES can see how your patient eats over time, during the course of a meal. And no radiation means no barium, so your patient can eat & drink an entire meal during the exam. Our average FEES study lasts 12 minutes, providing information about the PRE- and POST-swallow deficits as well as the impact of fatigue...a necessity for patients with COPD, neurodegenerative disease, post-surgical weakness or debility following illness.

Since 1997, SDX Dysphagia Experts has been making dysphagia easier to swallow with a REALISTIC view.
