

LET'S FALL IN LOVE TONIGHT

By John Lipinski

You look so good, in your blue satin gown
Your eyes are so very inviting
The way that you look at me, tells me I've found
A woman, extremely exciting

So let's fall in love, tonight
One night of heavenly passion
Let's fall in love tonight
Tomorrow might be too late

Solo

I've been so lonely, too long
A romance, I can't keep together
But, one night with you, could turn me around
It might even last forever

So let's fall in love, tonight
One night of heavenly passion
Let's fall in love tonight
Tomorrow might be too late
