 Course Links at Brigantine Beach (70.8 /125)
 Weather Sunny Windy low 40s

A strange scoring day as all 4 players shot net 76 on a course made famous by Harry Vardon and Walter Hagen. Harry and Walter would play this course in preparation for the British Open. The course has a number of interesting holes, plenty of blind shots and challenging par 3s. The course was in ok condition but has seen better days. There was a lot of goose sh-t on many of the greens and the greens softened up as the the temps went up making it difficult to get the ball to the hole. It was great to get out since there won't be golf in north jersey for quite a while.
