CAREER ENRICHMENT
Community Social Work in Scotland: A Crucial Element of Social Work's Future

Visit Scotland on this customized social work program. Discover Glasgow, Scotland's largest city, with its rich past as a religious center and one of the most important industrial cities in Britain. Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland, is also a delight with its Medieval Old Town contrasting with the Georgian splendor of the New Town. Oban is a lovely resort town that is ideally located close to the Isle of Mull and other locales.

Program Highlights

- 8 nights / 10-day journey through Scotland
- Attend a performance of the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo music festival.
- Accompanying guest program – alternate activities will be provided for those who do not wish to attend the meetings.
- Optional post-program extension to Bucharest & pre-program extension to London.

Focus on Community Social Work

- Discuss poverty, criminal justice, social justice, the elderly and hospice and home care needs in Scotland (Great Britain) with your local counterparts.
- Discuss poverty and social policies with Professor Gerry Mooney from SWAMP Project in Pollock (southwest Glasgow). Learn about their urban policy interventions and regeneration programs; discuss their impact in addressing these long-term issues.
- Interact with social work counterparts for substantive meetings at facilities such as St. Columba's Hospice and the British Association of Social Workers.

Focus on the Community & Culture

- Enjoy a cruise on Loch Lomond, visit to the Isle of Mull, as well as scenic stops in a variety of towns throughout your journey including Glencoe and Iona.
- Give back with an exchange at Cyrenians, a group who have worked with the homeless and vulnerable, for the last 50 years, to transform their lives. Their name comes from the biblical story of Simon the Cyrene but they are a secular organization. A donation will be provided to them on your behalf. Visit and help at one of their sites.

Program Leader: Elizabeth J. (Betsy) Clark, PhD, MSW, MPH

Dr. Clark has held leadership roles in health care, academia, and non-profit organizations, most recently serving for 12 years as the CEO of the National Association of Social Workers. Her areas of clinical focus include cancer, hope, and loss and grief, and she sits on numerous boards of cause-related or professional associations. A strong advocate for women's rights and economic equality, Dr. Clark currently is the President of the Start Smart Career Center and the co-author of the "Smart Women" book series which focuses on mentoring young women for workplace success and career advancement. Her most recent book, "Choose Hope (Always Choose Hope)," is a resource for patients, families, and professionals experiencing a crisis of hope.
