AT DROP OFF AND PICK UP, ALL VEHICLES MUST BE TURNED OFF FOR PARKING LOT SAFETY

Please Note: Arrival procedures may change under recommendations by the Center for Disease Control (CDC), the PA Health Department and/or the Office of Child Development and Early Learning (OCDEL).

Pick-Up Procedures

Children are required to be picked-up at their scheduled pick-up time. Parents or other authorized adults are required to sign their child out of care on the Procure computer system (or clipboard) located inside the day care entrances. Parents may pick up their children from the playground in the evening, weather permitting. Once a parent signs their child out, the parent is then solely responsible for supervising their child while on agency premises. The parent should not allow a child to wander through the hallways, bathrooms, other classrooms, and/or playground. Parents should check a child's cubby, folder or school bag each day.

Please Note: Pick-up procedures may change under recommendations by the Center for Disease Control (CDC), the PA Health Department and/or the Office of Child Development and Early Learning (OCDEL).

Parental Access to Children

The center has an "open door" policy and parents are welcomed, unannounced at any time to visit with their child. Parents must notify the staff of visitors or alternate pick up and drop off persons.

In cases where the child is the subject of a court order (e.g., custody order, restraining order, or protection from abuse order) the center must be provided with a copy of the most recent order. In the absence of a court order on file in the center, both parents shall be afforded equal access to their child as stipulated by law. The center will contact the local police should a threatening situation occur on site.

Transportation Policy for School Aged Children

Parent – Teacher – Community Partnership

The day care staff utilizes various developmental tools in implementing a program for all children. These tools include but are not limited to; Creative Curriculum, Ages and Stages, the Pennsylvania Learning Standards, observations, assessments, and information provided by the child's family. Resources are available on topics of social & emotional, mental health, early childhood education, health & wellness, and medical services; to parents and staff. Early Intervention information is available to our families and we partnership with community services (SAM, IU, Easterseals, Early Intervention Services, etc.) and welcome early intervention professionals and specialists to participate in our program.

IEP and ISFP - Your child's growth and development are measured with developmental assessments. If your child currently has an Individual Education Plan or an Individual/Family Support Plan, please provide a copy of your child's plan to the center. St. Joseph's teachers are willing to participate in IEP and IFSP meetings. The day care facility is available as a location for services as well as a setting for scheduled IEP and IFSP meetings.

Inclusion - The day care collaborates with local Early Intervention Programs to support the OCDEL Inclusion Announcement and reasonable accommodations will be made for the children.

Supporting Language Development - The Center supports language development and academic achievement of all children. Reasonable accommodations will be made for children whose first language is not English.

Curriculum Statement

It is our philosophy that children learn through play. Our classes provide a variety of planned hands-on activities which are developmentally appropriate. The center has adopted the researched based Creative Curriculum and utilizes the PA Learning Standards as a framework.

Goals for individual children will be determined through the use of daily observations, progress reports, the screening tool Ages & Stages, and conferences with parents. Parent conferences are offered twice a year. Through this parent and staff partnership, activities are presented to support the child both at home, and in the center, to achieve predetermined goals. Individual needs will be reflected in staff's weekly lesson plans. All key learning areas of development will be integrated throughout the day. A well planned environment including defined interest areas will aid in promoting learning. Infants and toddlers will receive daily information about their child and every classroom will communicate a weekly newsletter for our families.

Teachers will use play, hands on activities, a whole language approach, fine & gross motor activities, literacy, and language development to plan intentionally for each child. Children go outside daily when the forecast temperature/wind chill is above 25 degrees or the forecast temperature/heat index is less than 90 degrees.

Consideration of outdoor safety is also given for falling precipitation and air quality.

When planning for the environment and developing lesson plans, teachers will use Creative Curriculum, Teaching Strategies, observations, assessment, research and the Pa Learning Standards as resources. The Environmental Rating Scale (ERS) may also be used to enhance the interest areas in a child's classroom and encourage diversity. Staff training is offered to compliment the professional development of the teachers.

Transitioning from developmental stages and classrooms: The general rule is that children are moved according to their Kindergarten classroom age. They would move with the same class according to their Kindergarten start date. The exception to that rule is the child who is developmentally able to participate in the next classroom or the child who has outgrown their current class developmentally and would benefit from a more challenging or structured curriculum. Activities are intentionally planned to assist the children in anticipating the move to the next developmental stage. Children typically move at the beginning of the school year. Information is available upon request for school age children moving to self-care.

An Open house is planned in September, each school year, to introduce the parents to the classroom instructors, the curriculum, the new environments, the teacher's expectations and the center's philosophy. It is at the open house that families are introduced to the STAR program. Information is shared during this orientation meeting to inform parents about the upcoming year and transitioning to a new classroom.

Field Trips

The center frequently supplements the programs with off premise field trips. Parents are required to give written permission for their child to attend all field trips. If parents wish to attend the trip with their child, they should discuss attending with the classroom teacher.

If your preschool child is not scheduled to attend on the day of a field trip, your child will be permitted to attend if required ratios can be maintained and there is transportation available. Payment for the additional hours, as well as the cost of the trip and signed permission slip will be due prior to the trip. Families have the option of meeting the group at the trip location and supervising their child without additional cost.

School age summer field trips are scheduled primarily on a Tuesday. Transportation is provided by a contracted school bus company. Some age restrictions apply.

Guidelines for Disciplining Children

The following discipline guidelines are implemented at the center:

Understanding child development for each age group and having an "overabundance of patience", and gentle reminders will teach the children through positive reinforcement and guided self-control. A developmentally appropriate environment will be achieved by explaining classroom rules to the children in a simple, loving manner. Cooperation and partnering with families for the goal of self-discipline is the ultimate desired outcome for each and every child.

- Disciplinary methods will not humiliate, shame, or frighten the child.
- Redirection and substitution will be used, as well as the use of praise and positive reinforcement to help obtain a more positive behavior.
- Aggressive physical behavior directed at teachers or children is unacceptable. Teachers will intervene immediately when a child becomes physically aggressive.
- Severe discipline problems will be referred to the Director.
- Time-out may be used to help a child regain composure. A quiet activity may be provided. The period of time spent in time-out should coincide with the child's age in minutes. A child younger than 18 months will not be put in time-out, but redirected to another activity. The staff member will discuss with the child the reason for discipline.

Expulsion and Suspension Policy: Parents may be required to meet with the teachers and or administration if approved behavior management strategies are not effective. Together, the parent and teacher/administration will devise a plan of action including a time frame for improvement. Part of the plan may include requiring the parents to seek support services to assist teachers in managing the child's behavior. A written plan may be sent to the Day Care Administrative Board for review and/or recommendations. The center reserves the right to dismiss a child if they pose a safety threat to themselves, classmates, or teachers.

Policy on Violence or threats of School Violence: The Center will adhere to similar protocols of the PA Act 26 recommendations for students in a Public School District. The policy warns parents against allowing their children from carrying to day care any weapon, instrument, or device that can be construed as an "actual harmful" weapon. Threats of violence, even if not taken seriously, may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of care or suspension or expulsion from the child care center. The purpose of this policy is to provide a safe and non-threatening environment for all children, teachers, volunteers and families. Disciplinary action will be determined by the Director, with approval by the Pastor and the Day Care Board.

Public Media

Parents should not post photos taken at the center of other children on public media.
