General Competition Rules

- Entrants must be between the ages of 13 and 19 as of October 18, 2018
- All entrants must be prepared to play the first movement (only) of the Mozart D Major Concerto and cadenza. A second selection of the entrant's choice is also required and must demonstrate a contrasting style. Copies of the solo parts for the edition of the Mozart Concerto being used and the second selection must be made available to the judges at the time of the competition.
- All selections composed as accompanied works must be performed with accompaniment.
- Contestants must provide their own accompanist.
- Judges may not require the performance of a selection in its entirety. Contestants should be psychologically prepared to be stopped. Contestants will be stopped when judges have heard enough to make a decision.
- The competition first place winner will perform with the Central New Jersey Orchestra, date yet to be determined.
- All winners must be able to attend 3 rehearsals and the concert with the orchestra in order to audition. If you are out of state and too far away to attend, you may not audition. NJFS is not responsible for any fees involving travel or hotel expenses that may be incurred by the winner. Once the winner is selected, the winner will correspond directly with the orchestra director. The winner will give a bio and photo to the orchestra director and talk about rehearsal locations and all other pertinent information regarding the concert, directly with the orchestra director.
- The decisions of the judges are final. Entrants must agree to abide by their decisions.
