Biography

Surrounded by her family, Betty Lou Furness, went home to be with her Lord on March 29, 2021. Her earthly injured soul now healed and cradled in her Lord and Savior's arms. Betty was born on January 2, 1943 to the late Asa and Lois Apley in Bad Axe, Michigan; where she was a lifelong resident and raised her four children. She spent many years working for the Huron Daily Tribune; memorizing everyone's names on her daily route. She was incredibly gifted at sewing and knitting; spending many hours making gifts, sewing clothes and knitting blankets for those she loved. In the early years of Clothe a Child, she would spend hours knitting boxes of handmade mittens to be placed in packages for children. Every year for Halloween, she would bless her four children with and sewn costumes and continued that tradition with her grandchildren until she was no longer able to do so any longer. She loved bird and squirrel watching and kept her feeders full to do so. She especially enjoyed her weekly phone calls with her cousin, Marie. She will be incredibly missed by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.
