

Donna Lee Robinson, age 85 of Bay Port, passed away at home Friday morning December 9, 2016 with her family at her side.

Born in Hazel Park on July 3, 1931, she was the daughter of Harold and Nohldene (Dugal) Draper. On December 5, 1970, she was united in marriage to Robert Charles Robinson at Kirk in the Hills, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. They had been married for 46 years.

Donna attended Detroit Business Institute and worked as a secretary for Ford Motor Company for 33 years, retiring January 1, 1988. She enjoyed skiing, and was a member of the Ford Ski Club, often taking trips to northern Michigan and the western states, winning several skiing trophies over the years. Donna and Robert developed their love for camping and caught the camping bug from her in-laws, Mom and Dad Robinson. As a family they camped and toured many states. They attended five camping club rallies throughout their retirement years with their motor home. In addition to her family, Donna had a huge heart for animals. Donna and Bob attended Calvary Baptist Church, Caseville.

Her survivors include her husband, Robert of Bay Port; two daughters, Kimberly (Terry) Shebby of Holmen, Wisconsin and Christine Robinson, of Camp Verde, Arizona; six grandchildren: Aimee, Robbie, Elliot, Jeremy, Angela and Amber; and eight great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Funeral services will be 1:00 p.m. Tuesday, December 13, 2016 at Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, with Pastor Mike Goforth of Calvary Baptist Church, Caseville, officiating. Burial will be in Caseville Township Cemetery.

Memorials may be given to Thumb Animal Shelter.
