'Behold, I am coming soon, and My Reward is with Me, to give to each one according to what he has done. I am the Alpha [Alef] and the [Tav] Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. Blessed are those who wash their Robes, so that they may have the Right to the Tree of Life and may Enter the City by its Gates'. -Revelation 22:13-14

The purpose of this study is to provide a Poster of the Hebrew Alefbet אֱלֶפֶת־בֵּית עֵבְרִי known as the Jewish Script, Free to Download. In the End Notes, a Link will be provided for those that wish to Purchase a Copy through one's Online Store. The writing has variations also in the form of the Square and Block Script. One is the original Old Hebrew Script known as the Paleo-Hebrew Script. This is the form that has been preserved over Millennia and part of the Semitic Family of Languages. The present Modern Script is called the Square Form that follows more of an Aramaic Script.

There is a Cursive Hebrew Script, which has also varied over Time and Place. The following are the Individual Alphabet Characters. Alef is the 1st Letter, Tav is the Last Letter. The Hebrew Language lends itself to the study of Numbers, which is called Numerology and Gematria as it has been noted. Like any form of Knowledge, these studies in Numbers can and are used for Good and for Evil. Bible Codes are a form of Numerology as some examples from the Torah will be presented.

The Semitic Language Family Tree starts with the Proto-Canaanite and the Cuneiform Alphabetic Proto-Canaanite developed into the Phoenician Script. Semite comes from the Name of the 2nd Son of Noah, Shem who primarily settled in the Fertile Crescent. The Paleo-Hebrew comes from the Phoenician Alphabet and Characters from which Hebrew Script is derived from. This Script was changed to Aramaic Alphabet in the 5th Century BC, although present-day Samaritans still use it. Some of the Dead Sea Scrolls contained Manuscripts in Paleo-Hebrew.

Language of the Creator

As in any other Language, the Hebrew Language has Dialects. They reflect the places the Jews have been during the Diasporas when due to judgment, YHVH Evicted the Nation from the Promised Land to the 4 Corners of the World. Aside from Hebrew as being primarily the Dominant Language, there is Yiddish, Ladino, and Judeo-Arabic. The Hebrew Language and Characters are also used in the Concept of Gematria.

It is the Discipline of changing Portions of Text into Numbers to look for 'Codes' and a deeper Meaning or Message. This has been done with other Languages, as well but in Terms of Hebrew, it has also been part of the Jewish Kabbalistic Tradition. This has been true since the Babylonian Captivity that has its Source of Origin in the Luciferian Occult that was Codified by Nimrod.

Aramaic came from the Conquest of the Assyrian after the 1st Temple period. The Hebrew Square Script came from this. It is believed that Ezra also brought the Script after the Babylonian Captivity. During the Time of Christ Jesus, Aramaic was the Common Language of the Region. The Paleo-Hebrew was still used as the Hebrew Script. Aramaic has mostly survived in Christian Communities around the Middle East.

If there is anything that can be had about any Alefbet or the Script that Humanity has evolved, it is that Jesus ascribes to it as being the Essence of who He is, the Beginning and the End. This insinuates a Creative Force of Communication, Language and the Logos that is identified in Genesis with Creation. The Concept of the Logos is that which Speaks into Creation and is Spoken as the Creator.

'In the Beginning, the Word [Logos] existed. The Word was with GOD, and the Word was GOD. He existed in the Beginning [Alef] with GOD. Through Him [Jesus, the Logos] all Things were made, and apart from Him nothing was made that has been made. In Him was Life, and that Life brought Light to Humanity. And the Light shines on in the Darkness, and the Darkness has never put it out'. -Genesis 1:1-5
