

FIGU-LANDESGRUPPE CANADA

49 QUESTIONS

A thought-provoking work for the thinking person.

49 answers to
“49 QUESTIONS”....

“Billy” Eduard Albert Meier was born in Bülach, Switzerland on February 3, 1937. For over 80 years, he has maintained a series of physical and telepathic contacts with extraterrestrial human beings who come from the Plejaren star cluster approximately 500 light-years away. The actual contact conversations have been written down word-for-word and are available in thousands of pages of contact reports. These contacts are ongoing and will continue for the duration of his life.

During the mid 1970's Billy was given the opportunity by the Plejaren to photograph, film and make audio recordings of their "beamships" during special flight demonstrations. In total, Billy took over 1,500 photographs and 34 8mm films, many of which were lost, stolen or tampered with. He was also given metal samples for the purpose of scientific analysis. In addition to the contact reports, Billy has also written extensively on meditation, the might of thoughts, life and death, Creation-life-energy and the nature of Universal-Consciousness, etc. As well, through his writings dealing with predictions and prophecies, he has warned us about the ever intensifying global and environmental catastrophes, primarily due to our alarming rate of population growth. As of 2026 he had written 46 books covering these important subjects, as well as a host of other topics.

INFORMATION FROM THE BILLY MEIER CONTACTS
FIGU SWITZERLAND

49

QUESTIONS

With Answers Regarding Life
and The Human Condition

4

49

Questions

With Answers regarding Life
and the Human Condition

Clarification for page 35 re: sodomistically

Excerpt from: Homosexuality - a Natural Occurrence in Conflict with Nature
by Billy Eduard Albert Meier

Furthermore, as homosexuality is a natural manifestation, hence nature-given, it cannot and must not be considered, judged or condemned as degenerate and unnatural, and similarly not as reprehensible, as loathsome, and neither as violating natural or human law. What is termed unnatural and a transgression against nature, however, is homosexuality and bisexuality of a sodomitical, degenerate nature - the sexual gratification with and on animals of any kind. This form of sexual variation namely develops exclusively from human thinking processes and fantasies, through which a person is even able to influence genes and their characteristics. By doing so, an individual can generate a particular corresponding predisposition.

COPYRIGHT © 1986/1992/1996/1997/2000/2018 by
‘Billy’ Eduard Albert Meier, FIGU

[Freie Interessengemeinschaft Universell /
Free Community of Interests Universal]

Semjase-Silver-Star-Center, CH-8495 Schmidruti ZH, Switzerland.
Absolutely no portions of this text or images may be utilized, disseminated or reproduced by any form or means [electronically, mechanically or otherwise] without the copyright holder's express written consent, regardless of the intended purpose for the item.

FIGU-LANDESGRUPPE CANADA

Dear Reader,

You approached us with questions that preoccupy you. Alternatively, you solicited answers from us to questions somebody else posed to you.

We pondered for some time whether or not we should respond to you on a personal level with individually formulated replies. Well, as you can see from the brochure in your hands, we chose to answer your questions with direct quotations from previously published FIGU material.

We are aware that you may find this type of response cold and impersonal, and you may also feel we are trying to evade a direct response to your questions. Please realize, however, that all personal replies are always slanted toward the responding individual's personal opinion and viewpoint. Those answers, therefore, contain subjective biases but you will be unable to determine the amount of subjectiveness within the entire reply. We always strive to provide neutral, correct, and absolutely truthful responses. However, we can only do so if we avoid any personal interpretation and strictly adhere to quotations from FIGU texts.

There is another reason for choosing this type of response. Namely, we realize that very few important questions preoccupying humans remain unanswered in these texts. You probably agree with us that it would be irrational to truly expect a direct reply to every question. What you the reader can and must expect, however, are pointers which, when combined with other pointers and statements from us, provide a blend of responses or at least guidelines to the many principles according to which a question is to be answered. If we then, based upon this standpoint, consult the spiritual teachings, we find the correct answer to every question and problem.

The following must be said regarding FIGU and the spiritual teachings: All teachings, explanations, clarifications and guidelines within the texts are based upon the laws of nature, hence, the laws of Creation itself. This declaration has nothing to do with the theses of a religion that degenerated into a cult or a religious sect. On the contrary, the teachings conform to the universal Creational laws and directives, and as such they are not only free from any belief assumptions but, in fact, are focused against them.

who is indeed a true prophet for the Earth's human races in truth, love, wisdom, and knowledge.

Take heed, practice and give respect and reverence to the prophet — the go-between, the herald — who is cognizant, loving and wise, and who mediates for the Earth's human species who are in need of the teachings of truth.

Take heed, practice and give respect and reverence to the prophet's spirit guides, those who are cognizant teachers of the Earth's ignorant human races, on behalf of the prophet.

Comply with the teachings of the laws and directives of Creation, because only by heeding them will you be guaranteed true life and evolution toward BEING.

Ibid.

Canon 3, Verses 9, 10, 15 - 18

Creation alone is the force behind all beings, all life, and the state of BEING.

Nothing is worthy of worship and veneration except for Creation.

Creation is the creator, for It originated all that was created, all that exists in Its universe.

Creation is the originator and It created life, existence, the heavens and earth, the galaxies and the firmament, and also any living creature and all multitudes of life.

Creation is the creator. There is no creator in Its universe other than Creation.

Creation is the OM.

Your constant striving for progression, as well as your continuous probing and searching, will bring you within easy reach of those elements that possess the glow of Creative love, and the truth which springs from the knowledge and strength of Creation itself.

Therefore, actively investigate, seek, and live Creation's laws and directives, which you must observe in every way. Behold, when Creation conveyed Its laws and directives to nature, they were intended to continue for all Great-Times. Furthermore, these ancient laws and directives are valid for all Great-Times, for they completely and profoundly display Creation's universal love. Hence, you will remain on the right path only as long as you live Creation's laws and directives to the fullest — when you adapt all of your thinking, probing, seeking, discerning, and your entire way of living, to these Creation-given laws and directives.

49. Why is Creation worthy of veneration?

OM

Canon 2, Verses 8-20

The JHWH is not worthy of worship and adoration, as these are exclusively intended for Creation. The prophet is not worthy of worship and adoration, as these are exclusively intended for Creation.

The prophet's highly evolved spiritual guides are not worthy of worship and adoration for, once again, these are exclusively intended for Creation. Humankind should never direct prayers to the JHWH or the prophet or the prophet's spirit guides, for prayers are to be directed exclusively to Creation.

Humankind is neither to worship the JHWH nor the prophet nor the prophet's spirit guides, for prayerful worship is to be directed exclusively to Creation.

Worship and adoration are to be directed only to Creation, the highest and most perfect of perfections in Its universe.

Take heed, practice and give respect and reverence to everything living, hence, also to the JHWH of the human races on Earth, as well as to the prophet and the prophet's spirit guides.

Take heed, practice and give respect and reverence to all living things.

Take heed, practice and give respect and reverence to the JHWH, who is the King of Wisdom for the human species of three worlds.

Take heed, practice and give respect and reverence to the prophet,

You shall never find proof of the accuracy in the responses we provide you if you are inclined to simply believe the responses. However, you will discover the proof you are looking for in the truthfulness of all the answers if you sincerely ponder and investigate them by way of your own personal experiences. The spiritual teachings are not theoretical beliefs but practical guides to everyday living. Because of this, we request you study and take to heart the answers provided in this brochure.

FIGU

The Core Group of 49

ANSWERS TO THE 49 QUESTIONS

1. Does extraterrestrial life exist?

Genesis

Sentences 211–240

There were first created the forms of possibility to sustain the life of those forms that shall be integrated into their own evolution. They would possess distinct shapes and special significance. The intent was for them to become independent life forms within their own consciousness. They were called OMEDAM—fulfillment of the law—according to their own significance and Creation created the idea for the OMEDAM life form that was to be a part of Creation's own evolution. From an idea, Creation brought forth into existence other creatures, objects, galaxies, stars and the like, in the same manner It had created lives that would consist of solid matter and be subject to evolution, such as flora and fauna. Thus were created the life forms OMEDAM in solid form and shape in a 7-times-7-fold reproduction of shapes throughout the entire Universe, as well as in 7-times-7-fold pigmentation. They were all created twofold, in both the spiritual and material realms. According to their characteristic significance, Creation intended that these life forms evolve, protect and govern themselves, along with all other types of life forms before them which had previously come into existence in the air, on and within the bodies of water, and on land. They were to evolve with and within EVERYTHING, as units of internal and external amalgamations, for the purpose of fulfilling perfection and a future homecoming as perfected entities into Creation Itself, in fulfillment and observation of the laws—to be united in synchronicity within Creation's own evolution as a perfected, independent self-unit with and within Creation's entity.

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 1

Contact #1, Sentences 19–21

Semjase<sup>1</sup>: Man on Earth calls us extraterrestrials or star people or whatever he feels like. He falsely attributes to us supernatural feats and without knowing anything about us. In reality we are human beings just like you terrestrials but our knowledge and wisdom are far superior to yours, and so is our technology.

<sup>1</sup>Semjase (sem-YAH-seh) is an extraterrestrial female beamship pilot from planet Erra in the Plejaran star cluster, which is located in another dimension.

2. Why and for what purpose do extraterrestrial human beings come to Earth?

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 1

1st Contact, Sentences 35–41

Semjase: You should be aware of them because they often attack and destroy everything that gets in their way. Many times they have even destroyed whole planets or forced their inhabitants into bondage. It is one of our missions to warn the people on Earth of these creatures. Let this be known to the Earth people because the time is approaching when a conflict with these degenerate (extraterrestrial) human creatures becomes unavoidable. An additional task is aimed at your sects and religions, along with the related underdevelopment of human consciousness. Above everything there remains but one that possesses the power of life and death over all creatures. It is Creation alone, which extends its laws over everything.

Ibid.

1st Contact, Sentences 57–60

Semjase: Religion is only a primitive concoction by man to command, suppress and exploit others, to which only spiritually weak life forms succumb. Bring this truth to light throughout the world and make it extremely extensive, cabballistic calculations that lead to very accurate results. Another possibility would be to investigate future events through various types of time travel into the future. This would very clearly show that predictions do indeed come true with absolute certainty, without a possibility of undertaking any changes or thwarting the event. Predictions are based upon the logical consistency of established facts, from whose origin and progression must come forth a very specific result. Prophecies, on the other hand, are very different, for, as a rule, their function is to simply warn of coming events, and their goal is to reveal with certainty what will transpire unless changes are wrought in time. Provided the change fails to come about, the prophecy then turns into a prediction that will invariably fulfill itself.

Therefore, one must reflect on the fact that prophetic statements and announcements can actually be changed depending upon humankind's behavior. Thus, no guarantee exists that a prophesied event will take place if positive change can be brought about through a beneficial evolution.

48. Who created the "Ten Commandments"?

DECALOGUE

Page 11, Sentences 29-39

Humankind, you have been given light and life — and together they progressively initiate you into the path of Truth. Therefore, remain in this light and in this life, so that you shall never deviate from the path for which you have toiled, a path that will bring you ever closer to Creation. Creation's universal love has brought you to the point where you recognize Creation in Its everlasting light, and It will advance you to the level where you shall observe Creation and the Great-Times. Although this may be difficult for you to perceive in your mind's current status, you shall see one day that everything is truly as I am telling you. Always be eager, therefore, to explore farther and deeper into what life reveals to you every day. Being dissatisfied with life's daily offerings is the only path toward expanding yourself more profoundly in the truth.

“I am Creation — I am not God, the Lord.”

When people are truly knowledgeable about Creation, the veritable energy, it becomes completely clear to them, as human beings, to desire knowledge or at least to perceive what they are uniting themselves with — this is intrinsic to them. Hence, they do not permit the bestowal of false “revelations,” for they know about the truth. They know about Creation as an energy form, for its existence proves to them the truth and, therefore, the knowledge. The consequence of this is that one speaks no longer of belief but of knowledge. Creation confirms itself within this reliable knowledge, but only to the truly rational individual, who lives as a part of nature’s logic. It is an Ur-law of Creation, and as such it has existed from the very beginning of time — human beings will find its existence through the law within the law, and they will grow in spirit and consciousness from within, without Creation specifically having to first prove its existence.

Ibid.

Page 139, Sentences 1036-1038

Human beings are capable of thinking. Why then do they believe in one god or one creator-god, but cannot embrace the deductions from the knowledge that there exists the one-and-only Creation? The only feature that links Creation with any god is that such a god will forever remain a mere product of Creation, regardless of which type of god it is. God was never Creation nor will he ever be Creation at this time or any other, nor will he ever reach this status as a mere god. How could any human, one of Creation’s beings, ever be possibly anything like Creation — in spite of the fact that a minuscule portion of Creatational spirit, the actual basis for life and an everlasting part of it, reveals its existence within the mortal, physical human body. Every religious cult has the immense audacity to label its god as Creation itself, by calling that god “creator,” although god’s “vocation” is nothing more than to exist as a human being.

47. What is a prophecy, what is a prediction?

Prophecies and Predictions

Foreword, Page 6

The following must yet be explained with regard to prophecies and predictions: Predictions are a form of foreseeing the future through known to the people. This is an additional part of our mission. If this does not happen, mankind will slowly destroy itself and fall into complete spiritual darkness.

40

Ibid.

3rd Contact, Sentences 14–17

Semjase: We only have the dutiful task to preserve the evolving and already existing human life in the cosmos. This means that we endeavor to keep order and monitor certain life. We generate contacts here and there with inhabitants of different worlds, single out some of them, and provide them with explanations, but only if a race is developing towards a higher level and slowly starts thinking. Then we slowly familiarize them with the thought that they are not the only thinking beings in the universe.

3. Why do the extraterrestrials not show themselves to the general public, and why cannot every human being have contact with them?

Semjase Contact Reports—Block 2

24th Contact, Sentence 12

Semjase: I shall endeavor to explain one final time why any form of contact with various individuals, other than you, is completely impossible. Here then are the reasons:

- 1) The prerequisite for us to have contact with human beings from Earth is that the individuals must have previously studied all disciplines for several decades.
- 2) We may only contact terrestrial beings when they meet mandatory spiritual requirements.
- 3) We may only establish contact with human beings on Earth when their development has advanced to a point where they are capable of independently resolving and becoming cognizant of the fundamental truth within the truth, without depending on any statements from their fellow humans or various written material.<sup>2</sup>
- 4) When we do make contact with terrestrial human beings in cases where these prerequisites are not fulfilled, such contacts are only temporary and for specific purposes. Once the objective has been met, the individuals’ memory of us and related matters are erased.

This was the case, for instance, with the individual whom we had discovered the TALMUD. However, various tasks demanding a person's public appearance, cannot be assigned to such individuals since this memory would be continuously erased, and they would be neither conscious of the correlations nor of any specific facts. But even these terrestrials must have reached a high evolutionary state in specific fields of knowledge, as was the case with the discoverer of the TALMUD for example, who was very versed in languages. Unfortunately, we burdened him with too great a task.

5) When we link up with terrestrials we do so according to definite, higher-level mandates and only with a precise, preselected number of entities due to the fact that too many individuals performing leading roles in any issue would tend to jeopardize everything. This reminds me of a saying you terrestrials frequently use, one that is really appropriate in this case: "Too many cooks spoil the stew." Indeed, this is a fact that has proven to be correct even with the Creational laws and directives, and one that maintains an ironclad order—Creation alone is the determining force of all things.

6) We are not permitted to make ourselves visible to more terrestrials than those who are within our sphere of responsibility. This precaution is directed against specific interests and demands by private, military, and governmental agencies whose aim is to capture our ships and all of our other material. Therefore, contact with several individuals would present a danger to us. For this reason we can only maintain contacts with terrestrials whom we completely trust and feel secure with in every way. This has far-reaching importance, particularly as it applies to our specific task involving you and your group. To this end, we must be absolutely certain in every way that the contactee takes every possible precaution to prevent the occurrence of dreadful consequences in the event that this should become necessary.

7) The fact that we only reveal ourselves to a few select individuals on Earth, and only carry on contacts in secretive ways and in hidden locations, has another motive — to avoid those individuals who are only too eager to seize all opportunities for sensationalism and selfishness, and who crave contact with us only for these motives. Furthermore, many individuals would completely panic at the mere sight of us, which in itself could lead to very dangerous consequences.

<sup>2</sup>Here is Billy's explanation to this paragraph: "It would be erroneous to assume that humans do not require their fellowmen, written materials or books to learn and evolve.

ment mean that the individuals guilty of a criminal act must realize the illogic and culpability of their actions and must begin to move into healthy thought patterns. This can be achieved by making the person(s) realize their erroneous deeds and incapacitated thinking, possibly even with medical assistance. Through instruction and learning the fallible persons can recognize their guilt and erroneous thinking and can, therefore, begin their transformation into a genuine, law-abiding human life form. It absolutely goes without saying that this process requires the criminal individuals' separation from society for an appropriate period. Atonement cannot be accomplished if the fallible persons are granted the same liberties to which they were entitled prior to committing the criminal act.

Human beings who demand, approve of, or perform capital punishment, are essentially cowardly, fearful, and greedy. Their thinking is pathologically irresponsible and irrational. This allows rage, fear, indignation, and helplessness to overtake them as soon as an event that preoccupies their thoughts goes beyond their own strengths. The reason for this is that their thinking process and its related powers are at this time still too primitive to responsibly deal with the event.

Torture and the death penalty are never expiation, but simply the most primitive and criminal mode of revenge and personal satisfaction of primitive, criminal, irresponsible and unreasonable humans, whose intelligence quotient and humaneness rest far below those of the delinquent being tortured or sent from life to death for his wicked deed. It is irrelevant whether the advocate or supporter of torture and the death penalty is an executioner, a judge or a lawyer, a housewife, a simple laborer, or a beggar. Whatever the case, the recommendation, demand, or execution of torture and the death penalty are all proof of an immense primitiveness, stupidity, greediness for personal gain, sectarianism, viciousness, bloodthirstiness, irresponsibility and the inability to think reasonably and rationally, and of the most primitive emotional shortcomings.

46. Is there a difference between Creation and creator?

An Open Word

Page 116, Sentence 839; Page 136, Sentences 1014-1018

be eradicated and killed. This is what the law ordains, because people have violated it and will continue to violate it into the distant future.

44. What is mysticism?

Spirit Lessons

Lesson #12, Mysticism

As far back in time as when the Minoan language existed, the term "mysticism" or "Myein," meant: "To close one's eyes." As was the case with the term "karma," the word "mysticism" also became falsified, and was given a different meaning by the so-called esoterics, sectarians and followers of religions. The truth is that the term "mysticism" must be understood as being an act of harmonization and unification of one's inner self with the Creational consciousness for the purpose of enlightenment and evolution. The intent is that this noble path is achieved through an exercise in moderation, contemplation and meditation to bring about mystical experiences, whereby all awareness of one's surroundings must be suspended.

45. Why is there so much crime ... capital punishment ... yes or no?

Torture, Capital Punishment and Overpopulation

A criminal always acts as a misguided individual, as someone who was misled or as a sick person; and this applies just as much to the thief as it does to the murderer or someone committing suicide. The criminal act in all cases stems exclusively from false, therefore sick, thought processes — whether the crime was meticulously planned or not. The thinking process of the criminal individual is abnormal and illogical. For this reason one can only speak of the person as having been misled, enticed or sick despite the degree of deviousness and intelligence that lie behind a crime. Being sick, misled and enticed are curable and can be remedied, even when we speak about a disease of crime. The emphasis of the curability lies in the healing process, in the atonement to which the errant individuals are obligated if they become guilty of a crime. However, healing and atone-

This situation, though, only lasts for as long as human beings need to depend on these aids and remain incapable of toiling independently to discover the truth through their very own Ur-strength (Ur = archetypal, original), at which point their knowledge, aptitude, understanding, wisdom and capability to experience things, have evolved to the level where the individuals must no longer resort to help from their fellow humans or books in order to unearth the fundamental truth, the essence of truth within the truth. This only applies to the Creational aspects, laws, directives, etc., and has nothing to do with schoolbook learning and the like, which may be gleaned as stencil-like knowledge from one's fellow humans, texts, books and other items. Until the Earth's population reaches an elevated point of intellectual/spiritual independence, extraterrestrials will be unable to establish contact with terrestrial human beings (with the exception of a few individuals)."

Voice of the Aquarian Age — Aktuell

Number 87/1, 246th Contact (Ptaah and Billy speaking)

Billy: . . . In addition to the things Semjase previously told me about the reasons why you people do not officially land on Earth and establish contacts, other reasons still remain. You previously told me confidentially that you operate under specific directives, which you must follow and about which you were not permitted to officially speak until now. Is it somehow possible that now we may mention them even in public?

Ptaah: The time has arrived and deterrents no longer exist in this regard.

Billy: Well, then, please correct me if I happen to say something that is not factual. Regarding these matters, you previously explained that one very important directive, perhaps THE most important one under which you people operate, states that you are not permitted, if not forbidden, to intervene, contact or simply reveal yourselves officially to human beings and various humankinds in public. This directive applies to all those humans, respectively humankinds, on any given planet, who have not yet mastered their own space travel technology to the point whereby they can come into contact with other human life and other matters on alien planets through their own capabilities. This directive also applies wherever humankind has, or rather the human beings involved have, not progressed to the point where they are collectively capable of acknowledging, with conviction and as an absolute fact and reality, that other human life forms exist on alien planets within the monumental vastness of outer space. Therefore, the possibility for a contact does not yet exist as long as merely a few individuals or small and medium-sized groups of people become convinced of it. This knowledge and the accompanying certainty must collectively include every human being on the planet. Is that correct?

Ptaah: What you say is exactly the intent of our principal directive regarding the initiation of contacts, all of our intervention, and the mandates that allow us to reveal ourselves in public. These mandates pertain to individual human beings and humankind on planets, whose technology and knowledge have not reached the level that would permit them to travel in space to locations inhabited by other human life forms. This directive also holds true for any contact with human beings whose levels of general knowledge and conviction, uniformly and collectively, have not yet reached the stage where they are aware of the existence of other human populations on alien planets throughout the vastness of the cosmos.

4. Dreams—are they merely passing fancies?

The Roseate Crystal

"The Invisible Kingdom"

. . . But even then it will be too difficult for human beings to interpret these dreams for what they really are, to understand them, and to retain the dreams as a recollection, because the evil king of reality continues sending his evil henchmen to destroy these dreams or the memory of them. He wants human beings to live in the frequently very ugly, evil reality. Truthfully, this reality only becomes evil and ugly through the actions of humans, for they make a great many mistakes in their lives, and they wish to only live according to their own desires, and they lust after wealth. In doing so, unfortunately, they disregard and shatter all that is valuable in knowledge, wisdom, kindness, truth, and beauty, along with every dream. This is the way it is, and how it's possible for the evil king of reality to be master over almost all human beings on Earth.

5. Why do we live? What is the purpose and meaning of life?

Spirit Lessons

Introduction, The Meaning of Life

Human beings live in, and are a part of, the Universe with its immutable laws and designated purpose of existence. Individuals who rec-8

Harken, humankind of this world. For millennia now you have frequently been presented with the same message. However, you disregarded the prophecies and cursed them, you blasphemed and derided them. Do heed them NOW, for the time of great change has come and you have only one remaining chance. Your descendants will curse you beyond the fourth millennium of your chronology should you choose not to grasp this opportunity. Humankind of this world, if you continue your feud with, and blasphemy of, Creation, horrifying events are prophesied for the next two thousand years — events which you have brought upon yourself through your false teachings, erroneous deeds, and acts devoid of spirituality.

Ibid.

Thursday, November 19, 1981, 5:28 p.m.
Prophetic Message from PETALE

Ashes, hot embers' vermillion glow
Will blanket Europe's ruined land
Human blood will amply flow,
Wastefully dyeing crimson its sand.
Worldwide fury and conflagration,
Madness backed by the Evil One's plan;
Death to millions, depravation,
Merciless slaughter wreaked by man.
It is war! A third-time global blaze,
Spawned by Earth-man's greed, his hateful fear,
Lust for power and religious craze;
While love is strangely considered queer.

Original German text by "Billy" Meier

November 19, 1981

English translation by Dr. D. Rothe

Talmud Jmmanuel

Chapter 25, The Prophecies, Verses 34-35

Since the human races will consist of far more than ten times five hundred million people at that time, great segments of them will sexuals and bisexuals, the epidemic's pathogen mutated to the degree where it became an inevitable fatal factor, against which medications and antidotes must now be discovered and produced. The grave concern here is, however, that these medications may only be discovered at the time when the epidemic has spread so extensively across the globe, that it could lead to comparable conditions as those seen in the days of the Black Plague, which also resulted in similarly high numbers of deaths through the fault of the human beings themselves."

"The blame for this epidemic, therefore, must be born by the sodomistically perverted homosexual and bi-sexual men and their depraved actions, which are against the laws of nature. Also guilty for this epidemic are all those individuals who tolerate and endorse sodomistically perverted homosexuality, bi-sexuality and sodomy in particular, even though these sexual variations are absolutely against nature's laws. One must be prepared under all circumstances that, sooner or later, their practice leads to fatal or, at the very least, life threatening consequences to which many life forms of the same category will fall prey. This also applies in this case to those who are guilty, along with the others and all the innocent ones, who will soon be victims to this AIDS epidemic, hence, the heterosexuals — the so-called sexually normal ones."

"The AIDS epidemic is transmitted in the same manner as all other dangerous sexually transmitted diseases, namely, only through direct contact, sexual acts in particular, through kissing and open wounds; but also through indirect contacts such as droplets of saliva and the like. The claim is incorrect that the pathogens of this epidemic cling to various materials such as toilet bowls, glasses and towels, where they supposedly remain active and then infect other individuals." The AIDS pathogens react in the identical manner as the viruses of other sexually transmitted diseases.

43. What does the future hold?

Prophecies and Predictions

Foreword, Page 8

ognize and comprehend these universal laws and the purpose of existence also recognize and comprehend the meaning of life. They will forever strive to link this cognizance with their own existence and, as a result, they recognize themselves, become powerful masters over themselves, and positively influence their surroundings.

Genesis

Clarifying Explanation, Sentences 392–395

To evolve with and within ALL refers to flora, fauna, and to the human life form, which must constantly evolve within ALL and with ALL. This, however, also signifies that every life form must live with and for each other in harmonious fulfillment of its evolutionary course, united into an entity of fulfillment within the Laws of Seven — internally and externally, i.e., in the spiritual and the material realms. A human life, therefore, should be lived in fulfillment of the Laws of Seven, in fulfillment of the spiritual evolution towards perfection, in order to some day become united as a perfected entity with the consciousness and the Gemüt<sup>3</sup> of Creation Itself. The purpose of this is to advance Creation's own evolution towards perfection in a path that is in accord with and within Creation, while being aligned with Creation as a separate entity of the unity within Creation's entity.

<sup>3</sup>The Gemüt is the spiritual counterpart to the Psyche.

6. Is there life after death?

Life and Death

Page 62

It is total nonsense when religious cults state that the soul continues to live after a person has died. The soul dies when the body dies, for it is a purely semi-physical factor of the body; hence, it is as temporal as the body. The spirit, a fragment of Creation, and essential for a material body to be capable of living in the first place, is absolutely the only part that continues to exist after a human being's death, whereupon it proceeds to pass into the Beyond. This spirit is subject to constant evolution and continues to live in the Beyond for a certain period prior to reincarnating in a new physical body.

7. Where do we terrestrials come from?

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 3

31st Contact, Sentences 603–608

Semjase: The human life form IS a product of Creation. Therefore, it does not descend from animals, e.g., apes, as it is so maliciously claimed by some people on Earth. Evolution of the human life form is a very lengthy process when the development of the physical form is considered. It was created from the earliest primitive life, but with the intended purpose of becoming a human being that was already animated by Creational forces in a sense of developing into a human. Thus, from his earliest beginning onward, it was determined that this created form would become human and, ultimately, a human being. This life form, therefore, has fundamentally been its own species since the very Ur<sup>4</sup>-beginning.

OM

Canon 8, Verses 78 and 79

Life proceeded along its path all the way to humankind, which evolved and became established as a separate, independent and the highest-developed life form of Creation, originating from the Ur-substances of the Earth and the life within it in a substance-bonding form. It established itself as human life in a substance-bonding form of the Earth and of the already existing floral and faunal life, without possessing a direct species-link with floral and faunal life forms.

<sup>4</sup>Ur = archetypal, original

8. Is there such a thing as 'secret sciences' for the initiated — and why?

The Psyche

Pages 58 and 59

Our immense thought power was not discovered in modern times only. Its proper implementation, however, is still rather novel to present-day humanity and may appear to be something of a book with seven seals to them. Secret Sciences, the strictly prohibited

10

Homosexuality is a naturally occurring type of sexuality that is against nature. "Natural" and "against nature" mean that homosexuality is a type of sexuality which manifests itself in a natural manner, but it cannot serve the laws of nature through reproduction. For this reason, this type of sexuality is against nature's law or naturally anti-nature, respectively. Homosexuality is a genetically-induced type of sexuality and, as a consequence, it is considered to be natural; however, it must be classified as anti-nature due to the inability of the participants to reproduce the species. Hence, homosexuality is called a natural, but anti-nature type of sexuality.

The Semjase Contact Reports describe the following on the AIDS epidemic: "This epidemic, which is still incurable for terrestrial humans, is the result of a forcibly deformed and mutated virus that completely paralyzes, indeed destroys, the human body's own immune system. Invariably, this leads to death even when there are only a few incidents of illness or injuries. The blame for this fatal epidemic must be born by the terrestrial human beings themselves; by those who are individuals living an anti-natural lifestyle, meaning sexually anti-natural humans, whose actions are accepted, tolerated, indeed endorsed. "We are speaking here of sodomistically<sup>1</sup> perverted homosexuals and sodomistically perverted bi-sexual men.

"Both of these are equivalent to an unnatural violation pertaining to one of nature's laws. Invariably, this transgression eventually must lead to serious consequences and to death. Nature's ways cannot be disregarded, disturbed and circumvented for many thousands of years without negative consequences. Normal male homosexuality and bi-sexuality are naturally anti-nature. They are, however, neither contemptible nor against the laws of nature in the same manner that heterosexual relationships and homosexual relationships among female life forms are normal and according to the laws of nature, (see the FIGU publications, "Semjase Contact Reports" and "The Law of Love"). Therefore, the AIDS epidemic basically originated through sodomitic perversions on the part of homosexual and bi-sexual men who submitted to sodomitic acts. Above all, the epidemic could develop through the joining of various active agents unique to simian life forms capable of merging with human beings by way of disgusting, sodomitic sexual acts of some men. This very old and dangerous disease transmitted in this manner would have been curable, had it not been for the fact that, through sodomists among human homo-

<sup>9</sup>The Hegira - Mohammed's flight from Mecca to Medina in 622 AD; year one in the Moslem calendar.

Semjase Contact Notes, Block 6

70th Contact, Sentences 151 and 152

Semjase: Arussem returned to Earth in all secrecy and established himself and his armies in the land of Egypt, within the old four-sided structures that had existed there, unused, for more than seventy thousand years. They established themselves deep inside the Earth, a great distance below these pyramids. Modifying the existing rooms and structures far below today's Gizeh Pyramid for their own evil purposes, they have attempted since that time to realize their plans of ruling the Earth from there. So far their efforts have not been really successful, despite the fact that their path to achieve their goal consists of deceit, lies and intrigues, including false teachings and efforts to mislead the terrestrials through insane religious teachings, cults and many other evil machinations.

41. Native Americans ask: Why do the white people need a book on religion? (Bible, Koran and others)

Voice of the Aquarian Age

# 50, Quotes by the Native Americans

The Bible was written for a lost people . . .
We know where we came from, and we know where we are going.
We do not need to read a book that gives us instructions. Quite possibly, this book may have been written for someone like Columbus: He was lost when he arrived here!

Philip Deere

42. What is homosexuality and how does it come about?

Directives

The Origin of AIDS and the Culpability of Those Who Act Against Nature

knowledge to which the general public never had access, became imbued not only with an immense amount of nonsense, but also with all elements that were genuine, real, and truthful, along with those that concurred with laws and edicts. The authenticity of this fact cannot be denied even now in the 20th century. Much of the immeasurable knowledge humankind has accumulated over past immense time spans remains hidden to this day in these inaccessible Secret Sciences. There it will remain, hidden from humankind and defended until the termination of the papal office, the "powers that be," and the members of the Secret Sciences. What is the reason for all of this? It's very simple: If the masses of humanity were to discover the Secret Sciences—something that would bring humankind immense, life-enhancing benefit, progress and success—religions and politics would be abolished within a very short time.

9. Do "wise men" still exist?

Arahats Athersata

Chapter 3, Sentences 99 and 123

Heed the heralds of the truth and the wise men of your time; those, therefore, who proclaim knowledge, truth and wisdom in forceful words, and who disseminate among you immense spiritual teachings. Regardless of the fact that terrestrials can count the number of New Age wise men and prophets of today on less than five fingers, they are, nevertheless, greater and more powerful than the rest of humankind combined.

OM

Canon 30, Verse 36

The wise person is sagacious and without pretense, and for this reason such individuals either utter few words on any issue or they remain silent—fully aware that the truth requires very few words. Hence, these persons sparingly open their lips to form words or to counsel.

10. What does “OM” mean?

Voice of the Aquarian Age

Number 50, OM

OM (AUM in Sanskrit) is an ancient word derived from the old Lyrian language, which was long since lost on Earth. The actual meaning of the acronym OM is disclosed when the full significance of both letters are revealed by an explanation of the two words whose first letters are the “O” and the “M”— OMFALON MURADO. When abridged as O and M, these two words OMFALON MURADO possess the identical, indeed, an even greater tonal-harmony significance than when the two are fully pronounced as OMFALON MURADO. For this reason, the abbreviation “OM” was used and became the traditional form. The ancient Lyrians referred to their writings about the truth—the BOOK OF TRUTH—also as the OM, OMFALON MURADO, LIFE’S NAVEL or the NAVEL OF LIFE. The text, entitled “OM” incorporates all Creational teachings, that is to say, the book holds all teachings of wisdom and life as a written record.

11. Why do religions exist — have they always existed and do we need them?

An Open Word

Page 166, Sentence 1215

... that these religious cults had their inception through a certain Egyptian Pharaoh called Akhenaten, who was the first significant person in the history of religion to invent monotheism—a one-god religion.

Semjase Contact Reports - Block 3

31st Contact, Sentences 304–309

Ptaah: If, therefore, mention is made of terrestrial religions, we speak of those forms that exist on Earth and of their implementation and consequences. Religions in this sense are a mortal danger not only on and to planet Earth, but they also harbor deadly perils for the entire Universe. Religions as they now exist on Earth are unique in wisdom. Wisdom is a powerful means of becoming cognizant of the Creational laws. A human being who is filled with love is also rich in wisdom; and a human being who is rich in wisdom is also full of love. Yet, terrestrial humans deceive themselves, for they know not love. They interpret possessive feelings and emotions as love, while true love remains foreign and unfathomable to them. Human beings become true humans only when they become cognizant of truth, knowledge, and wisdom even though they may not apply the term Creation, for wisdom is also love in its most splendid form. Human beings will always discover that enlightenment and cognition are knowledge, wisdom, and love. Where there is love there is always wisdom as well. Love and wisdom belong together, for Creation and Its laws are simultaneously love and wisdom. Where there is wisdom and knowledge there is love and cognizance; and where there is cognizance and love there is Creation. A growth in love and wisdom teaches human beings to be cognizant of Creation. Truth, however, is the first lesson for human beings to learn. From it they will achieve freedom and peace, an everlasting peace, a force without end. Wisdom and love are the two animating wings of the Creative essence and character.

40. What are the special circumstances surrounding the Cheops pyramid in Egypt?

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 2

Excerpt from Asket's Explanations dated February 9, 1956 Sentences 1-7 and 1-27

Asket: You are astounded at the age of the pyramid. Truthfully, its history is somewhat obscure, for its origin dates back to very ancient times. To tell you now about its meaning and background would lead us too far afield. Therefore, I will merely mention the important dates so you can visualize the entire situation: This pyramid and all others on Earth were built when the Lyra Constellation was positioned in the sign of Cancer . . . This results in a period of  $2 \times 36,650$  years — hence, 73,300 years total. You must place the calculation of  $2 \times 36,650$  years prior to the days of The Hegira<sup>9</sup> to obtain the correct date. The pyramids and their construction initially date back to the Celestial Sons, the star travelers, who were the actual pioneers of this world.

Voice of the Aquarian Age

#51, WUV Strikes Back!

One can recognize from this that the animal or monster WUV 666 ["Weltumweltverschmutzung" - in English: world environmental pollution] refers to the consequences generated by a specific human breed, the humans of the 20th Century who bear the "666" mark upon their forehead, so to speak.

Prophecies and Predictions

Thursday, January 29, 1976, Sentences 1-14 (Petale)

It is the child of evil, the child of destruction, who is a deadly enemy of knowledge, wisdom, and truth — an enemy of love, peace, reverence, and harmony. It is the anti-logos in a myriad of forms. The number 666 is the power of evil, for it opposes the truth about Creation, the truth about the spirit, and the compliance with Creation's laws and directives. The "IT" is "HE" — and he is embodied as the powerful who exists in lawlessness, tyranny, and bloodthirstiness within the anti-logos. It is an evil power with deceitful forces, miracles, signs, all types of seduction, trickery, lies and deceit regarding injustice, and false teachings among those who become lost within the erroneous knowledge of the anti-logos, instead of accepting the love of truth for their own salvation. The anti-logos is the child of destruction, evil, confusion, the prowling, lurking, and deadly. It is the seed of annihilation, the murderer of the truth — 666, the anti-logos.

<sup>8</sup>LOGOS = reason; that which is logical.

39. What is truth of the spirit?

OM

Canon 46, Verses 51-66

Wisdom is the characteristic sign of Creation, a fraction of which lives as their spirit within all human beings. Therefore, let humans magnify their understanding of wisdom so that they can become cognizant of Creation. Let them increase their search for the truth, so they will know the strength of wisdom. Cognition of the truth results in liberation from all constraints. It brings unlimited knowledge and this Universe; they are without comparable equivalent. A mortal peril, they hold dominion over the terrestrial population and the entire planet. They have allowed your world to wither spiritually for thousands of years, have blocked any attempt of spiritual evolution, and thwarted its advancement. Spiritual evolution is impeded through the false teachings of your religions, which currently dominate your Earth.

32

Decalogue

2nd Directive, Sentences 195–197

"You shall keep holy the name of CREATION and not abuse this name."

Humans of Earth, you are neither better nor worse than other life forms. You are, however, much more misled than any other life form known to us. This predicament simply stems from the unworthiness of your unreal and irrational religious CULTS whose equal cannot be found on any other level or universe known to us. This state neither springs from depravity nor viciousness on your part. You have been misled for specific dishonest reasons, and thus you have fallen prey to exploitation, spiritual deprivation [of the consciousness], and enslavement.

12. "Knowing" or "Believing"?

Information Worth Knowing

#2, Knowledge and Belief

There is a fundamental difference between belief and knowledge. Belief signifies that something cannot be verified and is merely accepted blindly as the truth. Knowledge, on the other hand, implies that you only accept as the truth that which can be verified. Proof in spiritual matters, however—and this is the prime concern here—can only be recognized through inner verification. This means that only intensive, consciousness-related thinking processes will produce the factual proof. In comparison, belief can never produce any proof, for belief is based on the premise that something, which was presented, is to be embraced as the truth merely by believing in it. This transpires especially in religions where some "teachings", dogmas, and cult rituals are presented to the believers as something in which they simply must believe, without opposition and without ever receiving proof of their accuracy. Belief is based upon lethargy and indifference in thinking. Gaining knowledge, however, requires hard and constant consciousness-related thinking and effort.

13

13. Is there such a thing as reincarnation?

OM

Canon 14, Verses 6, 7, 13, 14 and 15

On the material side of your world exists solid-matter life along with its related learning period and evolution. In the Beyond, however, exists the life of the spiritual realm and its related evolution of the spirit form. This point establishes that a spirit form's preparation for another life in a new human body takes place in the Beyond. Subsequent evolutions and preparations occur in the Beyond prior to the spirit form's next life in preparation for its rebirth within a material form human body, which is filled with energy and is without encumbrances. Human beings live in the "Here and Now" on the Earth, only to go into the Beyond after death, so that they may successively be reborn, ready to evolve. Hence, a human being lives and dies and is reborn in a new body. This process of growth and death repeats itself until the time of times has come when that person's spirit form, the infinitesimal fragment of Creation, no longer requires a material human body for its continued evolution.

14. Do animals also evolve?

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 4

54th Contact, Sentences 55–57 (Semjase and Billy)

Billy: That's nice. So tell me now how this works with animal spirit forms? Are they subject to a spiritual evolution as well?

Semjase: Certainly. Their spirit forms, however, are limited to a specific order purely within the evolution of nature.

Billy: Does this mean animals do not follow a spiritual evolution in the conventional sense, as is the case with human beings?

Semjase: That is correct, for their spiritual evolution does not serve to perfect the spirit; it simply assists the evolution of nature, which has its own assigned order.

37. Do angels exist?

OM

Canon 20, Verses 139 and 142-144

The Unjust and the Unknowing falsely attribute sons and daughters, angels and saints to Creation. Hence they do the same with their god or idols, or with their myriad of gods, idols and the like. Creation is without gender, hence it is neither male nor female, neither chaste nor unchaste, neither timely nor untimely, neither spatial nor non-spatial, for in all truth, Creation is spirit and spiritual force, light, and truly pure spirit energy in conscious form. Creation is without a male or female mate, for Creation is IT. In all truth, It is without gender, which distinguishes It from each and every other existing life. Since Creation is without gender and without a male or female mate, and because It is spiritual energy in the purest, truest form without being linked to any type of dependency, how then could It possibly beget sons and daughters or those who call themselves to be such, in one form or another? How could Creation be a god, a mere human being and power ruler of the coarse-material type of life?

38. What does anti-logos<sup>8</sup> mean?

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 4

45th Contact, Sentences 142-144

Semjase: It is worth mentioning that the numerological value 666, the Anti-Logos, and the related lies and misrepresentations, were forced upon terrestrial human beings. Fanatics, liars, deceivers, religions, charlatans, and the power hungry thrust this deceitful name upon humans against their will. Hence, the value of the number 666 does not apply to an actual individual nor to the thinking processes and actions of a long-departed human being from Earth, but it refers to the figure of delusion it was turned into. It has ruled the Earth as a religious cult figure ever since.

be blamed here as well, for it propagates these false teachings through a complete lack of knowledge of the real truth. According to these false, parapsychological teachings it is theorized that an astral body can wander outside the physical human body. The truth, however, is that such an action is an absurd impossibility for this simple reason: If the astral body were to leave the physical body, the latter would die beyond revival within moments.

The truth is the so-called astral body is nothing more than the pure spirit life form within a human being. Hence, it is the instrument of the incarnate ego on and from the astral level. Therefore, the astral body truthfully embodies nothing other than a fragment of Creation, namely the spirit, which exists within human beings for the purpose of giving them life.

36. What teachings did Jmmanuel propagate?

Talmud Jmmanuel

Chapter 34, The Teaching of Creation, Verses 1-4

Jmmanuel preached powerfully and said: "Behold, Creation stands above humanity, above god and above everything else. Creation appears to be perfect by human comprehension, but this is not so. Since Creation is spirit and thus lives, It must also forever perfect Itself. But since It is one within Itself, It can only perfect Itself by way of Its own creations, through the generation of a new spirit, which dwells in humans and gives them life. As they evolve further through their learning, Creation perfects Itself.

Ibid.

Chapter 23, The Greatest Commandment, Verses 39-43

But the other law, equal to the first, is this: You shall consider only Creation as all-powerful, for It alone is constant in all things and therein is timeless. God and the emperor are transitory, but Creation is eternal. Upon these two commandments depend the entire law and the prophets. The laws of god and those of the emperor are human laws and are intended to maintain law and order among people. But the laws of Creation are the laws of life and the spirit and, therefore, they are eternal and constant.

Billy: In other words, animal life forms do develop spiritually to a somewhat limited degree, but they do not follow an actual evolution to achieve perfection. Only the spirit of nature develops, which could possibly be called "instinct intelligence" or something like it, isn't that so?

Semjase: This description is somewhat correct.

15. What is meditation really; how does it help in everyday life?

Introduction into Meditation

Page 127; Sentence 1-4 and Pages 228–229 ibid.

The teachings in meditation are the teachings of the spirit for the purpose of self-recognition. This, in turn, is based on the cognizance of everything that is genuine reality, and on the mastery of all factors pertaining to spiritual and physical life. Meditation is the teaching of forcible forcelessness<sup>5</sup>, which is based upon absolute logic, i.e., on the Laws of Seven, whose interpreted value is explained in the following explanation—forcible forcelessness.

This forcible forcelessness must be seen as being a state where the individual liberates him- or herself from illogical thoughts and actions. This condition is called certainty/determination in logic. A thought is considered to be the beginning of any subsequent deed or action. It must, therefore, be decisive in its deduction to the extent that it is formulated and devised in cognizance of the truth, and becomes a purposeful, stable objective.

... With the passing of time, individuals practicing meditation will find that many things become much easier to perform, and this they will discover rather soon. Suddenly they will comprehend many things much quicker, will learn everything much more easily, and will function more effortlessly. Gradually, they will also accomplish these many things through their increasing inner serenity, which they did not have to wrest into existence in this case with the aid of these exercises. Indeed, these things could never be forced into existence in the first place. The meditators automatically begin to master every mandatory item, including tranquility, which, in turn, results in a certain state of balance. Every effort mentioned above helps humans to turn towards a level where they begin to find that they are dealing with everything much more effortlessly, and to a point where they are able to absorb and cope with the many things life has in store for them.

<sup>5</sup> “Gewaltsame Gewaltlosigkeit” in German. Sentences 7, 8 and 11 of “Introduction into Meditation” say: (Forcible forcelessness means that) ... the goal is determined and must be reached, because it corresponds with the only correct form. The determination however is force (hence “forcible” – Note.) in a logical format to achieve a precisely defined goal of spiritual value, ... Therefore, forcible forcelessness must be understood as follows: “The determination to reach the goal in absolute logic” must be described as force (Gewaltsamkeit), whose application however occurs in absolute forcelessness, because it harbors no compulsion at all but only the knowledge about the absolute correctness of logic in logic and the resulting effect.

16. Why is the Earth overpopulated? (Between 1840–1993 The Number of Humans Has Risen From 1.4 to 5.9 Billion!)

Arahats Athersata Chapter 3, Sentences 6–12

Human procreation is not merely part of a simple formula of multiplication as is erroneously proclaimed by the terrestrial religions’ false teachings. The preservation of the species is subject to the observance of nature’s laws, and as such, it is a solemn compliance of monitoring and regulating. The formula for mere procreation, however, is uncontrolled, unmonitored and unregulated, for it engenders reproduction at a senseless rate that is contrary to all natural laws. The fact that terrestrials are following the formula of simple reproduction, and are disregarding all of Creation’s natural laws, is even obvious to those human beings who exist on a relatively low level of spiritual evolution. Terrestrial humanity is reproducing and procreating offspring in complete disregard for moderation, in an uncontrollable, unrestrained manner. Your Earth is capable of supporting and feeding (approximately) 500 million human life forms, and yet terrestrials have begotten nearly 3.5 billion human beings by the year 1975 (6.75 billion by the year 2000)! Within just a few centuries, they have jettisoned themselves into a terrible state of overpopulation to the point where millions are being condemned to die an abnormal death. Through irrationality and the terrestrials’ religious false teachings, the human population is being propelled into a boundless mass. The finite and containable problems, initially limited to a small human population, have now begun to spread across a nameless mass and proceed to go completely out of control. As a result, and within a few cen-encompassing love, mercy, and justice. Then, at the flip of a coin, he could turn around and unscrupulously demand the spilling of innocent human blood and order the cruel slaughter of millions of Earth human beings.

Semjase: This is a very accurate assessment. I am quite familiar with his features. You terrestrials refer to him as the God from the Bible, but we named him “Jehovah the Unjust and Cruel.” His death took place approximately 2,150 years ago. He was a very evil and power-hungry life form who ruled during the same period as another, kind JHWH, and who led countless human beings on Earth to death and destruction . . .

Billy: . . . and to whom today’s Christianity still pays a hellish tribute.

<sup>7</sup> JHWH = “King of Wisdom,” (i.e., The highest level of knowledge that can be obtained while in a material body).

34. What is hypnosis? Is it useful; is it dangerous?

Spirit Lessons Lesson #16, Hypnosis

The starting point of all hypnoses rests in thorough concentration. Concentration, however, can be learned in several ways, both difficult and easy. The most fundamental and valuable method of them is based on individuals practicing their meditation, and from this they are able to generate a superb meditative concentration.

Hypnosis and self-hypnosis, suggestion and auto-suggestion are very valuable cornerstones of life. They are applicable and effective in every sphere of life. But one has to fully realize that hypnosis or self-hypnosis must never be utilized for negative intents.

35. Is there such a thing as an astral body projection?

Spirit Lessons Lesson #26, The Astral Body

Regarding the so-called astral body, a number of false teachings exist that confuse human beings. Once again, parapsychology must Semjase: Certainly, but in this matter all celestial bodies are influential, with time playing a particularly dominant role. Within the precise astrological determination process, time is of the utmost importance, down to the seconds. Unfortunately, terrestrial astrologers disregard this factor, and they choose to calculate their charts in mere minutes which, as a rule, tends to provide somewhat vague results.

32. What is Telepathy?

Spirit Lessons

Lesson #17, Thought Waves

If an individual wishes to transmit any type of thought form to another human being, this can be achieved via the material consciousness and the material subconsciousness (unless it is spirit telepathy). Contrary to false and erroneous claims by the most diverse cliques, organizations, institutions, orders and several others, a normal and primary thought transmission originates not in the spiritual realm but in purely material regions of the material consciousness and the material subconsciousness. In other words, it does not happen, as is so often claimed, that one person's spiritual self transmits thoughts to another individual's material self. Currently, the prevailing telepathic form with which terrestrial human beings have been familiar all along is simple thought transmission by the material consciousness.

33. Who was Jehovah?

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 3

39th Contact, Sentences 66-72 (Semjase and Billy speaking)

Semjase: You are very familiar with the circumstances.

Billy: All right then, as long as you are informed about it. I am talking about "dear old God," JHWH<sup>7</sup> the Barbarian, as I call him, or Mr. Jehovah, the way he was generally referred to.

Semjase: The one from olden times, from the days of Moses?

Billy: Precisely, he is the super hero, I mean, the dubious character who proclaimed he was Creation and bombastically spoke of all-centuries only, humanity has been pushed into becoming an over-populated human bulk because it has disregarded and transgressed against the laws of procreation. With ever-increasing population figures, your other problems, privations, and excesses have also increased.

17. Is there a god, a devil, or a hell?

The Psyche

Pages 52 and 53

The word "god" is merely the ancient term from an equally ancient language of alien people whose existence and language could not reliably be proven until 1973, and again in 1994. Without a doubt, and although theologians and other scientists disclaim this fact, the word "god" is not in any way synonymous with "Creation" in this ancient alien language. Since time immemorial, the term "god" has been applied to human beings who, by virtue of their spiritual and consciousness-related strengths and subsequent capabilities, were qualified to master and perform deeds to which kings and emperors were incapable. Therefore, due to their special abilities, these human beings were either called god or goddess to signify that they stood "above the emperor and the king" (with regard to their spiritual level and consciousness).

... To this end, several astute individuals turned to the ancient Celts' history, where in olden days one of these super humans was called "god" and revered as their "god of the hunt," since he wielded his immense spiritual and consciousness-related powers in hunting for the well-being of the tribe. Ancient traditions and other elements prove that this god, who had two horn-like growths on his skull, was called Teubel.

... Over many centuries, indeed millennia, the name Teubel was changed countless times to finally become "Teufel" in German (or "devil" in English). This name was adopted by these still very young religions and, in remembrance of the "god" with horns, the name was applied to a secondary god; the evil counterpart to the merciful and loving god who did not sport any horns. And thus, good and evil came about—heaven and hell.

Life and Death

Page 1

Earth human, you have never been, nor will you ever be, capable of entering a heaven or hell anywhere. As a human being you create your own heaven or hell. You must, therefore, create heaven for yourself should you wish to go there.

18. Who was Jmmanuel (a.k.a. Jesus Christ)? Did he live?

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 1

8th Contact, Sentences 202-208

Semjase: Jmmanuel was a mere human being like everyone else, and you know this better than I do. The difference is that he was endowed with very great knowledge. He does not represent a symbol, an idol or anything else. He was, however, a teacher, a prophet of spiritual knowledge and wisdom and nothing more. No life form should ever be idolized or revered in the manner human beings have a habit of doing. When we had the Talmud Jmmanuel retrieved from its 2,000-year-old hideaway, it was done so merely because the time of truth had dawned. Jmmanuel's teachings are not his own but those of Creation and Its laws, which even Jmmanuel first needed to master, recognize and accept as well.

19. Why is the term “savior” only partially correct?

Arah Athersata

Chapter 3, Sentences 218-220

This human life form, who was called Jmmanuel in those days, observed and practiced Creation's laws and directives, and he abided by them with ironclad compliance. He proclaimed the spiritual teachings only to small groups of individuals, after which his disciples were expected to carry them forth in identical form unto the four corners of the globe. The intent was that the disciples would impart the teachings to other human beings and guide them back onto the path toward Creation. Alas, they spoke before others without having cor-teachings. It is the root of additional, preventable and evil effects that cause much suffering and many needless complications within the internal and external elements of life.

30. How long have humans existed on Earth, and was Adam the first human being on our planet?

Semjase Contact Reports, Block 1

9th Contact, Sentences 148-153

Semjase: Semjasa, the highest-level leader of all the sub-leaders copulated with an EVA, a female who, in his eyes, was the most human-like and quite comely. This sexual act produced an attractive human male, whom Semjasa called Adam, which means EARTH HUMAN. Another, similar copulation resulted in a female child. Many years later, Semjasa determined that these two Adams should mate. Meanwhile, however, many other similar beings were procreated who then gathered into large groups and tribes. From these developed today's human population who, from the earliest beginnings onward, would be disbursed by race throughout the various continents.

31. What is valid about astrology?

Semjase Contact Notes, Block 5

66th Contact, Sentences 26-32 (Semjase and Billy speaking)

Semjase: As early as approximately 12,000 years ago, our ancestors designed the astrological symbols. With the passing of time they were changed several times, however; indeed, they became repeatedly lost. Still, they were always rediscovered, changed back to their original format, and have survived until this day — once again in their authentic Ur-form. All of the symbols contain very special and specific significance that characterizes each planet in question. They can be transmitted to all life forms through vibrations, whereby the life forms adapt themselves in character to the symbols and display related traits that are expressed in physical, psychical and spiritual aspects.

Billy: Ah, that means they are already an astrological aspect, is that correct?

hungry and others, the Bible has retained clear and distinctly identifiable basic teachings. These teachings demonstrate that Creation alone is the true Creator of all things, and that god is a human creature of this Creation. Furthermore, some specific terms and passages in the Bible's New Testament may be regarded as being the reliable, authentic and true teachings of Jmmanuel.

It is a well-known fact that the Bible originated by way of an altered transcript of the Torah, and that the Torah was also falsified beyond recognition. In addition to the Christian Bible and the Jewish Torah, many other so-called "Holy Scriptures" in former times, indeed even now, report about similar matters, e.g., a legend in Sanskrit texts. Such was the case in the Bible over a long period, until related books were removed from the "Holy Scriptures" upon a resolution from the "Holy See" in Rome. As per usual, this was done at the precise time when terrestrials once again began searching and exploring for the truth. Hence, the oldest and most important book in the Bible, the Book of Enoch, was removed and condemned as being heretical — while, simultaneously, it was integrated into the Vatican Library (force of habit . . .).

29. Why must humans suffer?

Introduction Into Meditation

Page 143, Sentences 129-131 and 139-140

The primary reasons for an extremely large portion of all suffering on Earth are irrationality, lack of control, hastiness and inattentiveness. Hence, a significant share of terrestrial suffering is not the result of conscious evilness. A single, brief moment of contemplation would often suffice to prevent far-reaching consequences of culpability, catastrophes and other ills.

Focused and concentrated observation provides the necessary time to consider whether or not a comment or activity is advisable or required in any given situation. This, in turn, slowly decreases the inordinate, premature willingness of unnecessarily interfering and meddling without being invited to do so. Such a bad habit with which human populations have been indoctrinated result from religious false rectly understood the teachings and, therefore, they proclaimed false teachings and confusing information.

Talmud Jmmanuel

Chapter 4, Jmmanuel's Arcanum, Verses 42-45

Jmmanuel, you will also be mistaken for god and his only-begotten son, and you, too, will be equated with the mysterious Creation. Heed not these false teachings, however, because millennia will pass before the people of these human races are capable of recognizing the truth. Much human blood will be shed because of you, including your own and that of countless generations. Notwithstanding, fulfill your mission as the king of wisdom, as the son of Gabriel, the celestial son.

Ibid.

Chapter 35, Cults Regarding Jmmanuel, Verses 37 - 40

Similarly, people with strange beliefs will also come and glorify me in their doctrines, making these more credible to the people, so they can further enslave and exploit them. And so, many religious cults will be established in my name, but their purpose will only be to enslave man in his consciousness and freedom, thereby providing these religious cults with great power over the people, their land and their money. But I tell you that no group of worshipers will be just if they fail to recognize Creation alone as the highest power and do not live according to Its laws and directives. And no religious cult will exist that will preach the truthful teachings, the knowledge or the truth.

20. What is our psyche — what does it consist of?

Life and Death

Page 62

The erroneous conviction that the soul continues to exist after death originated among terrestrial human beings. It was based on the fact that at all times, and through irresponsible lack of knowledge of the true factors, the cult-religion blockheads labeled as immortal that factor of the human being which represents the center of our emotions — the psyche. This psyche consists of a human's emotional center and his or her world of thought. Indeed, upon observation of the psyche, human beings who are ignorant and unenlightened in matters related to psychic cognizance, may gain the perplexing impression that the psyche is not semi-organic or material, but actually non-material or of the spirit. However, this is completely contrary to the truth. Furthermore, thousands of years ago a very inaccurate human observation led to erroneously calling, and continuing to call, the psyche as the soul. And this was occasionally labeled in former times as being immortal and pure-spirit in nature. The truth, however, is that the soul (psyche) is just as mortal as the body itself, and in passing away it dies as soon as death releases the body from life.

21. Does magic exist — and what is true about it?

Spirit Lessons

Lessons # 36, The Number 15

The number 15 primarily represents the significance of a world of magical energies. This number possesses excellent occult-supernatural significance without being generally contingent on so-called higher occultism. Individuals with the number 15 are capable of applying magical powers to reach their goals. In this context the term "magic" must be correctly interpreted as "the unfolding of energy."

Individuals with the number 15 should be very cautious when their number can be linked with the values 4 or 8, because together they can symbolize something quite sinister. Individuals with the number 15 are very quick to turn their energies toward this so-called "black magic," which means they emanate their powers in a negative manner. Due to the fact that people with the number 15 are usually very eloquent, musical, theatrical, vital and artistic in yet other ways, it is easy, therefore, for them to exploit their strong "magnetic" presence in a negative form; so individuals with this number must combat such a demeanor.

Things Worth Knowing

#3, The Seven Realms of Magic

Before I begin a brief description of the individual areas, I would like to attempt defining the term MAGIC. We are speaking of magi-ness, that the existence of one's surroundings is also part of one's own existence. This may be in form of a plant, a spirit form, an animal, a planet, a stone or another human being.

Love is the absolute certainty, the absolute knowledge and the total experience and comprehension that all life is a fraction of one's own. Together, everything is a complete "We-Form" in the Ur-BEING of all existence for all time, which can only live as a total existence in the knowledge and sensation of love.

Love, therefore, is absolute knowledge and sensation, absolute discernment and co-existence in unity with all existing life of every species and form in the entire Universe. This is in the absolute wisdom that one's own existence is also a fractional existence of each and every other life form that is. Conversely, every other life form is also a fragment of one's own existence. All life forms throughout the entire Universe only exist because this is truly how it is.

Decalogue

Epilogue, Page 135

LOVE MUST BE THE HEARTBEAT OF HUMAN INTEGRITY, for love alone is the path to peace, freedom, knowledge and wisdom. To feel love for Creation and every life form is to show a deference and dutifulness to all that is worthy of reverence.

28. Which sections of the bible are correct and why are the statements of the old prophets missing?

An Open Word

Page 4, Sentences 29-32 and Page 219, Sentences 1536-1538

The Bible only partially represents one of the oldest stories of humankind still in existence — though it may not be the oldest or most comprehensive. Unfortunately, it is also riddled with many mistakes, lies, and falsifications. Several components of the Old Testament in the Bible may be considered legitimate and true teachings of God even to this day, provided they are very carefully selected and scrutinized. In spite of all reformations and other changes, false teachings, and adulterations by the chroniclers, scribes, fanatics, the power

The Clock is Striking Twelve

Time is fleeting! . . . do not postpone until tomorrow what you can do today, for it is imperative that you take active measures to change and improve the earth immediately!

We must see and clearly recognize the overall problems for what they truly are, and we must grasp these ills by their roots and eradicate them. However, we can only accomplish this with the energetic help and cooperation of all responsible human beings — those who are willing to create a clean, healthy, and free world for themselves, their children, and their children's children. This world can be a paradise, provided it is properly maintained and cultivated.

For this reason, you, your energy, and your efforts are vital in the fight against the madness generated by the power hungry, the know-it-alls, the irresponsible people, and the materialists. These people are only interested in their personal profit and lust for power. They care not about their fellow humans. You are also a part of us when you want to bear some obligation and responsibility for all life. Do not hesitate very long. Join us so that we can crusade against the madness in this world. Please contribute your own efforts in every conceivable and achievable way in this fight for the continued existence of life. You, too, are needed and are irreplaceable in the fight for survival.

27. What is love?

The Law of Love

Love is the absolute certainty in knowing that one co-dwells and co-exists in everything, thus in all that exists: Within fauna and flora, with one's sibling humans, in each and every material and spiritual life form regardless of its species, within the existence of the entire Universe and beyond.

Therefore love in its truest definition means:

To experience the absolute certainty of co-dwelling within everything that exists — in the absolute certainty, and with the absolute aware-cal events: when incidents occur that suspend space and time through the conscious application of one's will.
24

It is not appropriate, therefore, to define magic as a form of "emission" in the physical sense. All physical processes are bound to the tactile, sensory parts of our world, which can be described as space and time (or according to modern physics as a four-dimensional space-time-continuum). Furthermore, magical effects require intent, hence, an intelligent entity to perform deliberate actions. It cannot be compared, therefore, to a spontaneous, natural phenomenon.

22. Why did wars exist and why do they continue to be fought?

Arahat Athersata

Chapter 3, Sentences 119-121

For centuries, even millennia, terrestrial human leadership at all levels has lacked knowledge, wisdom, cognizance, love, and truth. The knowledge and wisdom pertaining to Creation and Its laws and directives are no greater in significance for current levels of leadership than the innocently spilled blood of a human being, whom the leaders allow to be killed by forcing individuals into war and murder. What else can remain for terrestrial humanity under such leadership except the slippery path into a deadly abyss?

23. World war III — can it be avoided?

OM

Canon 36, Verses 64-70

Humankind on Earth will be embroiled in a third worldwide inferno, and many wars and battle cries will echo throughout the Earth. One people will rise against another and so will one family member against the other. A fiery death will raze the Earth and annihilate human beings as though they were vexing pests. Creation's laws and directives shall be fulfilled, for until now they have been recklessly incited by terrestrials. Many people will perish by their own faults and those of the hypocrites and the blind, the clerics, false teachers, leaders, the mighty, judges, officials, and the apostates from Creation. Through their own fault, this brood of snakes and vipers among human beings will be destroyed, and they will not be able to blame anyone but themselves. Suns of death will glow above the Earth and nothing will be capable of containing the madness. For the ancient foretold prophecy will be fulfilled that humankind on Earth shall punish and destroy itself for all of its murderous debts unless it returns to and strides on the path of Creation.

Prophecies and Predictions

Wednesday, January 28, 1976 (Petale<sup>6</sup> speaking)

Verily, unless humankind changes its ways in truthful honesty and universal love and all-encompassing harmony toward a balanced, pure-spirit state, the horror of the prophecy will ensue in a cruel and prolonged form. Immense universal forces may well have averted total nuclear destruction since 1974, but the danger of a third world war has not been averted. A third world war is already smoldering. This war will occur, powerfully and unexpectedly, during mockingly peaceful times. In the midst of this tranquility, the humans of this Earth will peacefully go to sleep one night only to be ripped from their slumber by battle cries, unless the people come to their senses in time and turn toward the noble and spiritual path with love, peace and harmony.

<sup>6</sup>PETALE (peh-TAH-leh) is the highest level of consciousness a spirit can attain before merging again with Creation.

Voice of the Aquarian Time

#35, World War III

Many of today's so-called clairvoyants or soothsayers (wanna-be's!) claim that a third world war is now no longer anticipated. However, these statements are not based on the truth. They are merely claims to cloak the limitless fears of those who generate these statements. In statements predicting that a third world inferno will not occur, there also lies considerable cowardice, for their perpetrators do not wish to be confronted with the existing facts — for reasons of cowardice. Let it be said: WORLD WAR III will certainly come. WORLD WAR III will occur as surely as a priest says "Amen" at the end of a cult religion's prayer. This third world war inferno can no longer be averted, and a great portion of the blame must rest with the religious cults.

24. What can be done for Peace?

The Clock Is Striking Twelve

Peace is not just a word — it is an immensely significant term. Peace on Earth begins in small measures. Humans will never be able to effect peace on Earth as long as they have "war" within their own houses and personal environment. They must first generate peace at home and within themselves, then with their friends, relatives, acquaintances, in every-day life, at work and at play. The efforts for world peace must begin at low levels and continue to expand upward from there. This requires a joining of people into small groups, regardless of the world's predicaments and/or vile events.

25. What can one do to counteract this prophetic catastrophe?

Voice of the Aquarian Time

#52, One Last Chance . . .

Well then, where there is a will, there is a way. Recently Billy's extra-terrestrial friends have clearly and precisely demonstrated this to us. The solution to this mystery is simply called "PEACE MEDITATION". This entire matter is very uncomplicated and can be achieved by anyone — without financial expenses, tools or similar items. All that is required is a little time and some good will.

According to Pleiadian explanations, we do have the opportunity to postpone the beginning of World War III and can reduce its ferocity by immediately inaugurating the PEACE MEDITATION, as it is called.

26. What active steps can I take to change and improve the earth?