Biography

. Trudy was born December 17, 1947, to the late David C. and Vera (Ward) Connors. Trudy spent most of her life in Fillion. She and Daniel Yaroch were married on November 4, 1967 and were married for 55 years. Trudy's greatest joy in life, were her grandchildren. She enjoyed spending time with her family, decorating her yard for all of the holidays for her friends and neighbors to enjoy, keeping her lawn well maintained, gardening, and going to the casino. Trudy made quilts to share with those she loved, and was cherished by the students and staff at the Bad Axe Public School where she was employed as a Para Pro for many years.
