ZAP Diving's Olympic Dreams Summer Clinic is a fun and immersive summer diving experience for divers aged 6 through collegiate level and beyond!

We Are Invested in taking a holistic view of each diver, fostering the development of the athlete and the human being.

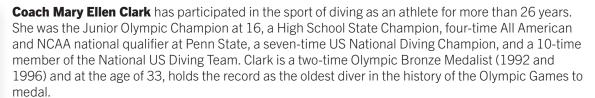

We Arm Divers with exceptional technical skill, as well as a critical understanding of themselves as individuals, the strength of their character, and the vastness and elasticity of their potential.

We Believe diving is the ultimate metaphor for life: from getting into a swimsuit, to climbing the stairs of the board — visible to all, to making a leap into space. When vulnerability is answered with courage, anything is possible.

Olympic Dreams Coaching Staff

Mary Ellen is the owner and head coach of ZAP Diving (11 years strong!). For over 40 years, she has coached age group, high school, and collegiate divers (currently at Bryant University), and mentored Olympic diving hopefuls. Additionally, Mary Ellen has partnered with health and wellness company, Isagenix International, for 13 years. Her deep understanding of the complex relationship between nutrition and the way we feel, move, and perform in all areas of life, makes her a passionate advocate for Isagenix products. Mary Ellen takes enormous pride in educating families about building healthy lifestyles and convenient nutritional alternatives for improved energy and focus throughout the day.

< Mary Ellen Clark in Barcelona, 1992

Coach Michael Kennedy graduated from the University of Notre Dame as a standout diver in 1985. Michael won the Midwest conference diving title his senior year, was a high point award winner for his swim team at ND several years, and earned the team's captain's award his senior year. He moved to Boston to attend graduate school, where he coached both Tufts and MIT NCAA Division III national divers. Later, Harvard University hired him as head coach of the men's and women's diving teams, training divers for NCAA Division I nationals. Michael currently coaches the girls' and boys' teams at Newton South and Newton North, where divers have been top finalist every year.

"Take the leap into a sport for fun, and enjoy the process of achieving your dreams! Anything is possible!"
