
Who Are We?

The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of Illinois is a not-for-profit hereditary and lineage organization. It is affiliated with the General Society of Mayflower Descendants and in 1897 was one of the first state societies in the country to be recognized by the General Society.

Any person that is able to prove a blood-line to one or more passengers who sailed on the historic voyage to the Americas on the ship Mayflower in 1620 is eligible to apply for membership. The total current membership of the Illinois Society is about 1,100 members. The governance of our organization is entrusted to the Board of Assistants, a body of elected officers and board members. We have no permanent or paid staff and rely completely on the volunteer and uncompensated efforts of our membership.

In addition to reviewing, approving and maintaining documented lines from Mayflower passengers, the Illinois Mayflower Society provides educational programs, publishes a newsletter for members, maintains a web-site, awards an annual educational scholarship, awards two research grants to Newberry Library scholars, assists non-members in searching family histories and provides support to libraries and schools across the state.

Are You a

Mayflower

Descendant?

Am I One?

Many families hold a tradition that they are descended from the Pilgrims, which often kindles an interest in finding out more. Sometimes the stories of a Mayflower heritage are true and it is easy to document a descent. More often the documentation is missing and must be researched and supplied to prove one's line. The good news is that advanced research techniques, improved genealogy library collections and computerized resources have made it easier to track down your Pilgrim roots.

Many descendants of Mayflower passengers, for a variety of reasons, are not aware of their Mayflower heritage. You may be one of those individuals. You should know that the majority of individuals who join the Illinois Mayflower Society each year were not previously aware of their Mayflower heritage.

Getting Started

Recommended Documentation:

The best documentation to look for is vital records such as the birth, marriage, and death certificates for each person. Other documentation might be published genealogies, family documents and other official records. If you have a relative who is a member of the Society, you may be able to use their lineage documentation to help you with your research.

Getting Started:

Memberships are handled through state societies. The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of Illinois looks forward to assisting you in researching, documenting and proving your Mayflower line. The first step is to contact our Membership Secretary via email: membership.illinoismayflower@gmail.com

To start the process, we'll provide you with a preliminary application to be completed and returned. You will then be assigned to work with one of our three experienced state historians to document your line.

We look forward to having you join us at the Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of Illinois.
