

AMERICAN SADDLEBRED ASSOCIATION OF ARIZONA (ASAA)

The American Saddlebred Association of Arizona (ASAA) is an American Saddlebred Horse Association (ASHA) Charter Club that enriches the Saddlebred experience for its members. We promote Saddlebreds at the local level in Arizona and help newcomers learn more about the breed as well as offering many equine and social activities for our members education and enjoyment. Typical activities include hosting horse shows, riding in parades, participating in horse fairs, presenting annual awards, and other popular equestrian activities. The ASAA is a 501©(3) non-profit corporation. Contributions and gifts made to ASAA are tax deductible as charitable contributions to the extent allowed by law.

MISSION STATEMENT

The American Saddlebred Association of Arizona, as an ASHA Charter Club, shall have the purpose of safeguarding the integrity and expanding the knowledge of the American Saddlebred; educating the general public in the exhibiting, use and history of the American Saddlebred horses and the improvement of the breed. We promote the humane treatment of American Saddlebred horses, stimulating and promoting interest in all matters pertaining to the history, breeding, and exhibiting of the breed. We encourage safe equestrian activities; educating youth with respect to safe and proper horsemanship and the showing of horses by promoting the formation of youth associations and dissemination of educational materials, and awarding scholarships to participants in youth horse programs.
