PASTOR'S MESSAGE
Pastor Allegra Hoots

Just as a body, though one, has many parts, all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:12

Dear Members and Friends,

In words found in 1 Corinthians 1: 2-4, grace and peace to you in the holy name of the Lord Jesus Christ, our blessed Redeemer.

I thank God for your faithfulness to the mission and work of United Presbyterian Church Plainfield - proclaiming the good news of the gospel in word and deed. Your generosity of spirit, acts of kindness, comforting words, and willingness to continue furthering the gospel inspire me to become a better preacher and more caring Pastor. Your steadfast commitment to this ministry is lauded and cherished.

If you are in the Plainfield area, volunteering to help with the brown bag lunches, serving as a liturgist, working on a committee, using your influence, skills, and muscles to keep the building and grounds beautiful, or prayerfully interceding for the people of God, your efforts are greatly appreciated.

For those living outside the local area, we are humbled by and thankful for the time, talent, and money you donate to boost the church's work. In addition to attending our virtual services, promoting our Facebook page and Sunday Livestream across social media platforms, you publicize the work of this ministry by word of mouth in the communities where you live. Thank you!

Praise God for the many different people, gifts, and roles that make up the body of Christ and that exist in every congregation. Diversity by Divine design, undergirded by the Holy Spirit's power, creates the capacity for God's people to collectively achieve God's will on earth as it is in heaven. It is awe-inspiring and marvelous to experience God's people altruistically working together for good.

There is something beautiful about witnessing people from different backgrounds with varying life experiences, differing personalities, and unique strengths collaborating to make positive things happen in the lives of individuals, families, and pockets of communities.

I do not know about you, but I am grateful God is no respecter of persons, and there is room in the body of Christ for every person and every talent. Moreover, I thank God you find the ministry of this house of worship meaningful and choose to share your gifts with us.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Declaration of Independence is one of the most important documents in the history of the United States. It was an official act taken by all 13 American colonies in declaring independence from British rule.

The document was originally written by Thomas Jefferson, but Benjamin Franklin and John Adams, along with Jefferson then worked together to make changes. The final draft of the Declaration of Independence was adopted on July 4, 1776, but the actual signing of the final document took place on August 2, 1776.

Here is an excerpt from the Declaration of Independence (U.S. 1776):

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF INDEPENDENCE DAY

Independence is declared; it must be maintained.

—Sam Houston, American politician (1793–1863)

The Declaration of Independence is America's revolutionary Charter of Freedom and the document upon which the nation's founding principles were established.

On April 19, 1775, during the Battles of Lexington and Concord (Mass.), the first shots were fired between colonists and British troops, starting the American Revolution. After these first military conflicts, tension between Britain and her American colonists continued to mount.

Finally, on July 2, 1776, the Second Continental Congress voted for independence from Britain.

Two days later, on July 4, the Congress approved the final draft of the Declaration of Independence, which had been written by Thomas Jefferson and edited by John Adams and Benjamin Franklin.

On July 8, the first public reading of the Declaration took place at the Pennsylvania State House (now Independence Hall) in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Later that same day, other readings occurred in Trenton, New Jersey, and Easton, Pennsylvania.

However, it wasn't until August 2, 1776, that the Declaration was officially signed.

On August 4, 1776, after delegates of the Continental Congress had signed the document, the Declaration of Independence was made official.

HOW DID OUR FOUNDERS ENVISION INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATIONS?

John Adams envisioned the celebration to be one filled with fun, games, and fireworks—not an occasion for displaying military strength.

On July 18, 1777, an issue of the Virginia Gazette describes the July 4 celebration in Philadelphia:

“The evening was closed with the ringing of bells, and at night there was a grand exhibition of fireworks, which began and concluded with thirteen rockets on the commons, and the city was beautifully illuminated. Every thing was conducted with the greatest order and decorum, and the face of joy and gladness was universal.”

What's really special about America's celebration of freedom is it was quite different for its time, focusing on the joys of freedom. Many countries have emulated this spirit of celebration ever since.

Immigration Sunday

Immigration Sunday is July 4th, 2021. It is a ministry and advocacy for new immigrants among us and discern how we can engage in immigration issues. The Presbyterian Mission Agency has extensive resources and information to help migrants and the communities who welcome them.. For resources or additional information, go to pcusa.org/immigration.

Pope Francis emphasizes the relationship between six practical actions that we can take to better serve those who are displaced:

- You have to know in order to understand.
- It is necessary to be close in order to serve.
- In order to be reconciled, we need to listen.
- In order to grow, it is necessary to share.
- We need to be involved in order to promote.
- It is necessary to cooperate in order to build.

Around the world, we know that many people are forced to flee their homes due to violence, hunger, poverty, and disease, but what does this look like in our own state? How is your parish implementing these practical actions? How is your parish working to provide for the pastoral care of internally displaced people? As we approach Immigration Sunday, we encourage you to begin examining what it means in your community to be displaced.

To move toward a greater understanding and gather ideas of how your community can mark Immigration Sunday, make use of the resources.

Note: Different groups celebrate this on different dates.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Parents, please read this to your younger child(ren)

God Chooses Us

Theme: God chooses us to be His children.

Object: A soccer ball or a ball for another sport; a book without a prominent title on the cover

Scripture: Ephesians 1:3-14

Do you like sports? (Hold up the ball in your hands). What's your favorite sport? (Pause.) Are you pretty good? (Pause.) Not everyone is, you know. Today I have a story to tell you about a boy named Thomas who was pretty bad at sports. (Open the book, and pretend you're telling the story from it.)

Thomas looked up from his book as his teacher announced to his class, "It's time for recess--we're going to play softball. Jacob, you and Mary will be the team captains today."

"Oh no!" Thomas thought to himself, "If Jacob and Mary are choosing their teams, I'll probably be one of the last ones chosen, as usual." As he stood with the other children on the playground, Thomas tried to pretend it didn't bother him when the other children were chosen, one by one, and he was left behind. But the truth was, it really hurt his feelings. "I wish, just once I could be the first one chosen," Thomas whispered to himself. (Close the book and put it down.)

I hope this hasn't ever happened to you, but the truth is that it's happened to most of us at one point or another. Surely there must be a better way to choose teams. Does anyone have any ideas about how to make the process better? (Pause.) I have an idea! What if we just have everyone number off 1-2-1-2-1-2? All of the ones could be on one team and all of the twos on the other. (Number the kids off and have them separate into the two groups). This way, no one is the last one chosen.

Our Bible lesson today is about being chosen to be in God's family. Would you like to be in God's family? (Pause.) The good news is the way Thomas' classmates chose teammates is not how God chooses His family. God chooses everyone who accepts Jesus as their savior. The Bible tells us that before He even made the world, God loved us and chose us--He already knew who would choose to accept Jesus. Anyone and everyone can be in God's family by placing their faith in Jesus. God welcomes and wants everyone!

When we confess our sin and put our trust in Jesus, we become God's adopted children, and He makes everything work out according to His plan for us. I am so glad that God chose me to be a part of His family.

How does it make you feel that God wants you to be part of His family?

Dear God, thank You for choosing us and for sending Your Son so that we can choose to be a part of Your family. In Jesus' name, amen.
