I am filling out the forms and wonder.....

What is.....

Bridal Dance Data Sheet:

When you fill out the Bridal Dance Data sheet please fill out all the names EXACTLY how you wish them to be announced. If only the two of you (Bride & Groom) will be dancing for the first dance, you do not need to complete the rest of the names on the Bridal Dance Sheet. Only fill in the names for those that you wish to be announced. If you wish to have the Bridal Party join you on the dance floor ½ way through your Bridal Dance....Notate on the sheet “Bridal party to join ½ way”. By doing this we will not announce any names, but will have the Bridal Party join you for your first dance.

The Grand Entrance?

The grand entrance occurs as the Bride, Groom and Wedding party enter the reception area. The MC usually performs the announcing, however, you may ask the party house or a friend to do the announcing.

Grand entrance songs are not mandatory however we suggest you use one. Some couples will choose a formal song to accent the mood and others will choose a funny song or upbeat tune to lighten the air. Other couples simply pass on the whole entrance. We are most happy to help you with this decision. A toast and/or Grace usually follow the Grand entrance.

The Dollar Dance

The Dollar Dance, Money Dance, Honeymoon Dance, is an interesting traditions at many wedding receptions. In America, it originated at the turn of the twentieth century when European immigrants wanted to make sure the newlyweds had a little extra money to start their new future together.

To have the Dollar Dance, we will simply play an assortment of slow songs that you can dance with your guests. The Best man and Maid/Matron of Honor can proceed to usher your guests through the dance line. We suggest that your Maid of Honor and Best man collect the money as your guests dance with you. Remember, only the guests who want to participate will do so. If your family uses history or tradition, it is a nice way to honor your heritage.

No matter what you choose for your wedding, whether it is to have a Dollar Dance or not, make sure that it makes you happy and fits your plans. Remember, this is a once in a lifetime occasion- so ENJOY IT!

The Longest Married Couple Dance/Anniversary Dance

The DJ invites all of the married couples onto the dance floor. We play a slow song as each married couple dances together. As the song plays, your entertainer will ask that all couples that have been married for less than five years to leave the dance floor. As the song continues, your entertainer will continue to ask couples to leave the dance floor until only the longest married couple remains. The longest married couple is then verbally honored. Ask us for some other ideas. We have plenty!
