Everyone is Welcome

Hazzan's Notes

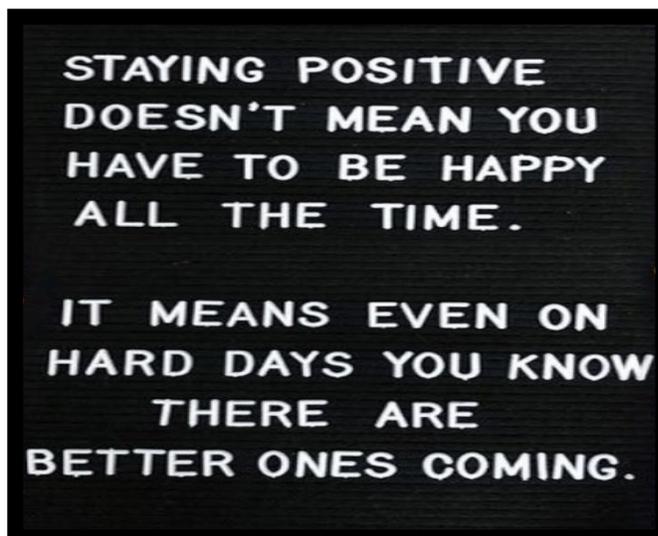

Dear Friends,

As we virtually celebrate Purim this year this month on February 25, I want to ask and remind you to enjoy watching our service and making as much noise as you can at home when we drown out the name of the "unspeakable one" who caused our people so much grief in the Persia of Antiquity.

Even though we are socially distanced, we need to enjoy the celebration of the forgetting the difference between the goodness of Mordechai and the evil ways of the "unspeakable one". The happiness and joy of this festival reminds us that even in times of COVID, we can relax a bit and have fun even when we cannot be together in person. I ask each of you to enjoy a bit of Hamantaschen from a local bakery, if possible, and remember the ancient story that reminds us to be ever vigilant in every generation to watch for those who would have us be obliterated from the earth toward their own evil means.

Hag Sameach in advance!

Hazzan Lance H. Tapper

From our President

What can I say about January?

January started off with a bang with things going on in our country that most of us would never have believed could happen. Whatever the repercussions are, I am sure that they will echo for a long time. I only hope and pray that this great country of ours will continue to be the beacon of hope and democracy that our founders envisioned, with Liberty and Justice and Freedom for All.

January also saw the beginning of Covid 19 vaccinations. Finally, some light at the end of the tunnel! Vaccinations are ongoing. The system for obtaining them, depending on which county you live in, has been complicated to say the least. If you are having problems with the system and signing up for vaccinations, please call the office and one of us who has worked with it will try to help you. In the meantime, we continue to pray for all those who have been, are being or will be affected by this scourge.

As homebound as we are, we have been able, through Kulanu, to make a huge impact on the Honduras Congregation with our congregations' donation of a Torah and the most generous gifts to them from Klara Wein of a pair of Tefillin and a Kiddush cup and from Rita Rubin of candlesticks and tallit. They were absolutely thrilled. I am very proud that our small shul continues to make a big impact.

On a personal note, I had great ambitions to clean out all my closets and do a myriad of other things that I keep putting off. I can't say that I achieved those goals but I did buy a Ms. PacMan arcade game. I don't usually tell people this, but when I had knee surgery in 1984, my son Bob took care of me during his Spring Break and he would take me to the arcade at the mall and sit me at a Ms. PacMan machine. No one says that getting older has to include completely growing up!

Hope you all had a good month. Let us know how and what you are doing. We are all in this together and suggestions on what you are doing to help you cope may help others.

Shalom
Lila

Purim

The holiday of Purim occurs in 5781 (2021) on the 14th and 15th of the month of Adar (February). Purim is not just the familiar story of the Megillah. It is an event in Jewish History that teaches us the significant lesson of how the Jewish people and their religion have continued to persist through the generations.

The Story - After king Ahasuerus (the Persian king) rids himself of Queen Vashti (according to my cousin Maxine a real kvetch) he orders a contest to select a new queen.

Esther (her Persian name, her Hebrew name is Haddasa) was forced by the king's officers to enroll in the contest. Her uncle Mordecai instructs her not to tell anyone that she is Jewish. The Persian king choose Esther to be his queen and never regretted it. Esther proved to be a devoted wife who gained his trust and won much favor. In fact, he granted her every desire. This was put to a supreme test when Haman, second only to the King, requested permission to kill all the Jews in the kingdom. He hated the Jews, particularly Mordecai, who refused to bow down to him. Haman's plot became known to Mordecai, who reported it to Queen Esther. When she heard of this terrible plot she fasted and prayed for three days. She ordered all Jews to do the same. In her honor, if Purim falls on a Sunday as this year, the Fast of Esther is observed on the preceding Thursday (13 Adar, 25 February) with a Megillah reading as fasting is prohibited on Sabbath. Queen Esther then took her life into her own hands by seeking an audience with the King. It was the law of the kingdom that no one was to appear before the king except when he summoned them.

Queen Esther and Mordecai then convinced the King and thwarted Haman's plan. He and his equally wicked sons were hanged on the same scaffold he built for the Jews.

The Lesson - It seems again, that in the lives of our people a tyrant arises to destroy us. It seems hopeless, but our people are saved. You can see history repeat itself as many nations have tried to destroy us. Examples of this include: Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia, Antiochus of Syria in the ancient years and Hitler of Germany in modern years. Despite their positions as leaders of powerful nations they fail to accomplish their cruel intentions. They ignored the lesson of Pharaoh Rameses of Egypt: G-d is with the Jewish people, and it is his will that his chosen people will survive. They will live to set an example of morality and applied wisdom for the rest of the world to follow. That is their noble mission, nation after nation and tyrant after tyrant have experienced this lesson to their despair.

The above are open to the world and all of us. Particularly to the Jews, this story should give assurance and courage that no matter how hopeless a situation may be and no matter how many Haman's arise. G-d will always remember his people and come to their aid at his proper time, if they turn to G-d with sincerity and honesty.

Hamantaschen - We are commanded to eat, drink, and rejoice on Purim. Because of this a Feast is prepared for the whole family. It is known for its food and song. A favorite of this Purim Feast is a cookie known by its Yiddish name Hamantaschen. In Hebrew it is called "oznei homon (Haman's ears).
