Puppeteer, storyteller

Making the World a Better Place One Puppet Show at a Time

Mission:

To offer a Joyful experience with Live and affordable family entertainment that ignites imagination, laughter and inspiration. In a way that supports the community and its storytelling needs.

Penny's Puppet Productions: a professional one-woman Puppet company. Specializing in Puppet shows, Storytelling and Creative Consulting. Penny is a Member of The Puppeteers of America and the National Storytellers Association, Portland Storytellers guild and a preformer for and on the board of Portland Story Theater.

Imagination, Laughter, Fun and Fantasy

Join the puppets on their many magical, musical adventures and unknowingly learn about the importance of friendship and values while being joyfully entertained. Laughter and audience participation are unavoidable.

The Shows:

Our imaginative shows take the children on a magical, musical journey packed full of comedy laughter and audience participation, blurring the boundaries between fantasy and reality to create a fun make believe world where anything can happen and usually does!

All puppet shows can be customized for the occasion, although, we also have many shows written and ready to go. Some shows are a twist on traditional tales (little Red Hen, The Princess and the Peanut) others are completely original. All are unique one of a kind experience for all ages. We also can create a custom show about any topic, for any kind of event *Improvisation is always an important feature of our shows as we try our best to make each show special.

The Puppeteer:

Penny Walter has her Masters in Early Childhood Education. Her Masters Thesis was on "Teaching with Puppets". She taught in the Portland area schools before deciding to follow her dream and became a full time puppeteer and storyteller. From 2002-2006 she was the Resident Puppeteer at the Portland Children's Museum. She has ongoing relationships with the Portland Public School district and head start programs as well as area libraries and is an Artist in Health Care at Emanuel Children's Hospital. Penny's Puppet shows, utilize audience participation, and instill the love of music, language, and stimulate the imagination. They naturally support emotional development, improve listening skills, and develop awareness and appreciation of the similarities of all people (and puppets). She teaches Puppetry classes & workshops for teachers, children, families, and other professional groups, in addition to performing at festivals, libraries, schools and Private events.
