Building Better Lives for Children

Love At Work International Christian School

Each week, hundreds of kids pour through the gates of Love At Work International Christian School. They laugh, play, eat, cheer, learn and feel valued, safe and loved. These precious children are finding the hope of being loved and not forgotten, the hope of a better future and, most importantly, the hope that comes from hearing the Good News of Jesus Christ.

The Purpose of a Quality, Christian Education

The mission of LAWICS school is unique. It is both educational and spiritual in nature, the dream of providing a world-class, Christ-centered education while being a catalyst for renewal, an instrument of God's redemptive love.

Breaking Cycles

We know a quality, Christian education can be a huge factor in breaking cycles of injustice, poverty, and violence. For example — students with a bachelor's degree earn 140% more annually than primary school graduates and, over a lifetime that gap is enormous.

Not only will these kids break the cycle of poverty in their family, they are likely to be more satisfied in their careers, healthier, and more involved as citizens and parents.

Equipped to Serve

But the purpose of their education is not to make it possible for these kids to earn a ton of money, just so they can buy a lot of things. The purpose of their education is to equip them to serve people in the name of Jesus . . . in whatever vocation they choose . . . doctors, lawyers, teachers, pastors, public servants, entrepreneurs.

They come from places where they're not always encouraged to help or care for their neighbor. But at LAWICS, they're learning and understanding that they can make a significant difference in someone else's life, and they want to give back.

Will You Help Plant An Oak Tree?

Oaks of Righteousness

Nathan went to school today dressed as a tree. He put on a brown outfit like a tree trunk. But more than a tree, I see a doctor, with the help of God, of course. He still lacks many years, but even now I visualize my son a great doctor, with God first.

Jahaira, Nathan's mother

They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the LORD for the display of his splendor. They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated; they will renew the ruined cities that have been devastated for generations.

Isaiah 61:3-4

Our Challenge

Someone once said, "The best time to plant an oak tree was 25 years ago. The second best time is NOW."

And we have the opportunity to do just that. Our biggest challenge is ensuring the continued growth of viable funding sources for education programs now and into the future. As our programs are designed to last an average of 12 to 16 years, we encourage education partners to view their support as a long-term commitment. Currently, we have many children who are without sponsors, including several in university. So we find ourselves at a critical moment, with a need

Unique Goals, Unique Solutions with a "Living Legacy" Gift

Unique Goals, Unique Solutions

Of all the things that distinguish Love At Work Ministries, what truly makes us unique is the support of friends like you, who make our work possible.

You share our dedication to "Building Better Lives for Children", yet you are each unique, with your own special reason for giving. And you choose to make your gift in a way the works best for you, your family, and your goals.

Building for the Future

As the name suggests, a "Living Legacy" is about building now for the future . . . for the benefit of others. A gift to the Living Legacy Fund will allow a child in poverty to attend Love At Work School today with the certainty that they will be able to complete all levels of their education here and then go on to university or trade school.

"We Liked the Simplicity of It"

As one education partner explained, "It is a really nice way to make a contribution. We liked the simplicity of it. We can't write a "5-figure gift," but we want to support this cause very much. We generally give a $4,000 gift at year end. Now, each year, we simply add another $4,000 to the Living Legacy Fund. Over time, we will have made "a 5-figure gift." So it's a nice way to make a larger gift during our lifetime. It's a good benefit to us, to the organization and, most importantly, to the kids who will be able to continue their education because of this gift."

A Legacy Gift Is Only Three Steps Away

A Living Legacy gift is not only a wonderful way to give, it's also an easy plan to set up.

Step 1: You, the donor, make a gift of cash or securities.

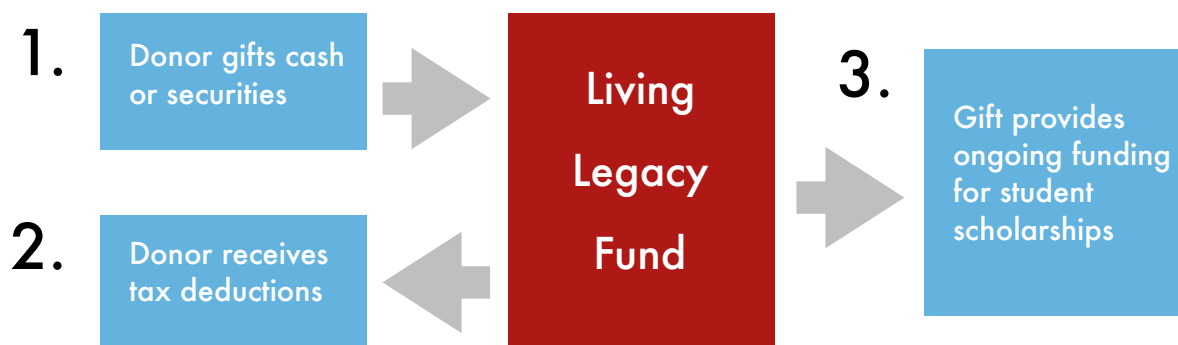

Step 2: The gift may help you reduce your taxes through an income tax deduction.

Step 3: Love At Work invests the gift in a separate fund. The principal and all investment earnings are earmarked for the sponsorship of children.

Because of this, it blesses you, and a child (or multiple children) in need. And because a Living Legacy creates an ongoing source of income, the school can count on annual distributions for continuing student scholarships.

Some types of gifts to consider:

- Cash gifts
- A will bequest
- Appreciated investments
- Life Insurance
- Tribute or commemorative gifts
