

MRS. JAMES S. HEASLY

M. Christine Steinhardt Heasly, 34, Aurora, Colo., formerly of Bad Axe, died unexpectedly Monday at her home.

She was born Nov. 24, 1945, in Bad Axe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward (Alice) Steinhardt.

Miss Chris Steinhardt and James S. Heasly were married June 12, 1976, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Bad Axe.

She was a 1963 graduate of Bad Axe High School and a 1967 graduate of Michigan State University with a bachelor of science degree in dietetics.

Mrs. Heasly served one year of dietetic internship at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., before working as a dietetic technician at Mercy Hospital, Denver, Colo. She retired one year after her marriage.

Mrs. Heasly was the current secretary of the Denver Dietetic Association and a former parishioner of Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Surviving are her husband: one son, David J., both of Aurora, Colo.; her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Steinhardt, Bad Axe; three sisters, Miss Irene Alice Steinhardt, Frankfort, Ky., Mrs. Keith (Heidi Ann) Walker, Bad Axe, and Miss Norma Jean Steinhardt, Albion College; one brother, Dr. George F. Steinhardt, Danville, Va.; and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Steinhardt, Lighthouse Point, Fla.

Services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. The Rev. Charles Keho, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the H.W. Weitenberner Funeral Home, Bad Axe, after 4 p.m. Thursday. Father Keho will conduct a parish wake service at the funeral home 8 p.m. Friday.

Memorials may be made to the Steinhardt Science Scholarship at Bad Axe High School.
