

Schnepf, Edward

Edward G. Schnepf, 85, of Owendale died Friday morning, June 2, 2000, at Bay Medical Center in Bay City following a five-month illness. He was born July 15, 1914, in Brookfield Township, son of the late William and Rosa (Milas) Schnepf. He was united in marriage to Florine R. Caswell on Jan. 18, 1941, in Flint. She preceded him in death on Dec. 16, 1992. Ed had been a farmer in the Owendale area for many years and also had been Postmaster in Owendale. He had served in the U.S. Army on many South Pacific islands in Army hospitals for three years during World War II. He was a member of St. Peter Lutheran Church in Bach. He also was a member of the Owendale Lions Club and had been a Boy Scout troop leader for several years. Surviving are one sister, Frieda Ann Evans of Essexville; two nephews, James Schnepf of Farwell and Timothy E. Schnepf of Kokomo, Ind.; three nieces, Carol Ann Livingston and her husband, Kenneth, of Elk Rapids, Susan Coffey and her husband, Daniel, of Germantown, Tenn., and Mary Ellen Albrecht and her husband, Philip, of North Muskegon; many great-nieces and great-nephews; one great-great-nephew, Zachary William Livingston; and a sister-in-law, Dorothy Schnepf of Flint. He was preceded in death by two brothers, Alfred and Erwin Schnepf; and one sister, Elva Schnepf. Funeral services will take place at 2 p.m. Sunday, June 4, 2000, at St. Peter Lutheran Church in Bach. The Rev. Ernest C. Wendt will officiate with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 9 a.m. to noon today at Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebawaing and from 1 p.m. until the time of services at the church. Memorials may be made to St. Peter Lutheran Church or the charity of the donor's choice.
