

Notifying the Public of Rights Under Title VI

ASSIST! TO INDEPENDENCE

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 49 U.S.C. 47123, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 (Civil Rights Laws) prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, creed, sex, or age in any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance. The Department of Transportation also prohibits recipients receiving federal financial assistance from intimidating or retaliating against anyone, because he or she acts to secure rights protected by civil rights laws. If you believe your civil rights have been violated as a result of prohibited discrimination, intimidation or retaliation, you have the right to file a complaint.
- When to File: Complaints of discrimination, intimidation or retaliation must be filed within 180 days of the last date of the prohibited act(s).
- Assist! to Independence operates its programs and services without regard to race, color, and national origin in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act. Any person who believes she or he has been aggrieved by any unlawful discriminatory practice under Title VI may file a complaint with Assist! to Independence.
