

Schubach, Florence A.

Florence A. Schubach, 95, of Elkton, died Wednesday afternoon, January 11, 2006, with family by her side. She was born September 10, 1910 in Owendale at the home of her parents, the late Harry and Selma (Buzzard) Fritz. On December 25, 1930, she was united in marriage to Stanley A. Schubach at the Bay Port Methodist parsonage. Mrs. Schubach lived and farmed in McKinley Township and Oliver Township with her husband. They retired in 1973, spending their winters near Brownsville, Texas. After Stanley passed away in 1998, she continued to go to Texas during the winter months until her health prevented it. Florence was a member of Hayes United Methodist Church and loved quilting. She was also a wonderful gardener and enjoyed camping with her family. Surviving are six children, Anna Marie Krohn, of Elkton, Eunice (Oliver) Leitch, of Elkton, Selma (Bob) Thiel, of McKinley Township, Carolyn (Dennis) Champagne, of Elkton, Ila Waller, of Mt. Clemens, and Jack Schubach, of Elkton; 23 grandchildren; 45 great-grandchildren and 23 great-great-grandchildren. Preceding her in death were a grandson, Gary "Judge" Leitch; two brothers, Alvin and Wilford Fritz; and a sister, Helen Muentner. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Saturday, January 14, 2006, at the Hayes United Methodist Church. The Rev. Douglas Mater, pastor, and her nephew, Lewis Tibbits, will officiate with burial next to Stanley in Caseville Township Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 9 p.m. on Friday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Elkton and after 10 a.m. on Saturday at the church. Memorials may be given to Hayes United Methodist Church or Bay Shore Camp. Those unable to attend may sign the guest book at www.cfcElkton.com.
