Journey to Guatemala, a country otherwise known as the "Land of Trees". Antigua is a small city surrounded by volcanoes in southern Guatemala. It's renowned for its Spanish colonial buildings, many of them restored following a 1773 earthquake. Lake Atitlán, once referred to as "the closest thing to Eden on earth" by Lonely Planet, is a crater lake formed around two million years ago. It is nestled between three majestic volcanoes and twelve different Mayan villages.

Program Highlights

- Enjoy participating in a Mayan culture workshop, school visits and more. This program is for you if you are looking for an adventure that will align with your passion for travel, cultural immersion, and philanthropy.

Focus on Culture

- Explore the beauty of Antigua, a UNESCO World Heritage, site with a local private guide.
- Hike an active volcano, Pacaya, and enjoy a picnic pizza lunch baked in the hot lava!
- Visit the Ixchimche Ruins, former capital of the Late Postclassic Kaqchikel Maya kingdom in 1470.
- Visit a local microbrewery just outside of Antigua. Started by a US brewer, who selected an amazing location adjacent to a coffee farm with majestic views of the volcano!

Focus on Community

- Learn how to make perfect tortillas in a mama's home.
- Join Carmen for a coffee and chocolate workshop.
- Join Don Cesar in his carpentry workshop and visit a nearby chicken bus factory.
- Put on your dancing shoes – learn how to Salsa
- Explore San Juan La Laguna, a small Mayan village, often referred to as the "Swiss Village" of the lake.
- Your participation will directly support the education of children in Guatemala and financial support families
- Explore the deep Mayan Culture of several indigenous communities.

Journey Leader: Lori Greenwood

My passion for travel started at a young age through books and became a reality when I studied in Germany, traveled all throughout Europe as a traveler and later as a teacher leader. I am excited to bring this opportunity to travel to Guatemala to you, please come and join me!
