Experiment ahead! The software program our parish uses to create our weekly bulletins will eventually change. As we slowly learn our new favorite software program we will experiment with what sections of the bulletin to include or re-format. The "Weekly Scripture Readings" is our first experiment.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) website has a Daily Readings Sections with links to both podcasts and videos for each Daily Reading. Please scan the QR Code below or go to <https://bible.usccb.org> to access the wealth of scripture readings, videos, podcasts, and reflections for the Daily Readings on the USCCB website.

Instead of detailing the Weekly Sacred Scripture bible passages we may only link to the USCCB Daily Readings website via QR Code in future bulletins. Please call Melissa in the Office if this new potential change hinders your access to Sacred Scripture.
