

What to expect after surgery

- A post-operative instruction sheet will be provided either in the recovery room or at bedside if you have been admitted overnight.
- The wound should remain covered until the next office visit unless you are informed otherwise. Your dressing will have a water proof covering so you may shower the day after surgery, but do not bathe.
- Pain medication prescriptions will be given to the patient after the procedure, before discharge.