Kirby wants to meet his maker!

KIRBY
Ooooh I'm scared, And who exactly is my maker? Who is "He?"

TIM
(coming out of stance)
Well for one..he isn't a he or she...but both and neither. It's spirit...Our creator...part of us all..and religious or not, it doesn't matter your a part of it, like it or not..Cobain knew....he couldn't handle it....flipped out. Now Jesus...he was a bad dude.... and he knew...It all fits..science, scripture..astronomy...astrology.. evolution and creation.....He knew...where he was going....Gave his life..so we could go. And as far as the big question "do you believe in god?" Well let me say this..with all that's going on these days..I'd rather believe in something with a positive end... Than go around like lost sheep in a dark den of wolves and thieves

We go around and see everyones expressions

The Great Spirit's not hard to find either....You just use the one thing he gave us that is the true meaning of created in "his" image. And that's the unconditional..... everlasting.....undying.....and.. unchained capacity to love.

CUT to NICK looking from the CLIFFS then back to TIMOTHY and around to EVERYONE'S DEEP expression.
