It was a good turnout for the World Series Qualifier #1. Many high scores in the group. Jim Petrochak kept it low and shot Net 34 on the front and went lower on the back with a Net 33 to win World Series #1. It will be his 8th appearance in 11 years in World Series.

On the front 9 it looked like Bob Babetski and Ander Keller, who were in the first group, were going to be battling it out for World Series with a Net 30 and Net 32 but they weren't able to keep it going on the back. Rick Newport was the big money winner despite finishing 3rd with 4 Birdies, 2 Net Eagles and winning the back, Net 31. Charlie Connors although finishing 17th ends up winning $15 with 4 Greenies and Gross 12 and winning Gross Par 3's.

Rich Fitzgerald may have upstaged Jim today with all the things he accomplished. Finished 5th, won money, tied for Net Birdies, tied for Net Par 3's (no surprise there) but was the sole win of the Sandy's pot for the first time ever. That Alien rescue club was must have been working well. But the biggest moment was when the Hall of Fame Committee announced his induction into the Hall of Fame. He has been in the league 35 years and it was well deserved. Congratulations Rich.
