Today, Allington Castle is the property of the Carmelite Order or the Whitefriars which is their traditional English name. The castle is open daily to visitors from 2 to 4 p.m.

My visit to Allington Castle was a beautiful ending to a lovely tour of Ireland, Scotland and England. It was an experience I will always treasure. As I meditated in the beautiful chapel, stood in that Great Hall looking up at the WYATT crest in the stained glass window, walked through the courtyards and beautiful grounds surrounding the castle, I could not help thinking of the hardships our ancestors had to bear. I am sure we are all grateful to our ancestors. I cannot close this article without making mention of my cousins, Bob and Ann NEVINS who made this trip so enjoyable. Bob is in the insurance business in San Francisco and makes many trips to London during the year. He had arranged for a friend in London to pick me up at my hotel on the last day of my tour and take me out to Allington Castle. It was a beautiful drive through the countryside. Ann is the daughter of Mary WYATT HECKER and the granddaughter of the late Harry W. WYATT of Marion County.

(Editor's Note: In the second paragraph of this very interesting article, Maxine makes mention of the fact that the second wife of her grandfather, James Blair WYATT, was Nancy Forrest MILLER, "a niece of General Forrest." Unless we are very much mistaken, General Forrest was none other than Nathan Bedford Forrest, the Confederate "wizzard of the saddle," who gave the Yankees so much trouble throughout the Civil War. first person born in Marion County and had told her about that many times.

Incidentally, for whatever it may be worth the oldest printed record of Marion County I have ever seen seems to support Nancy ALBERT's claim. She was born there in 1817.

Please see page 190, History of Marion and Clinton Counties, Illinois (1881), where in speaking of early events in Marion County, the following appears:

"The first marriage occurred in 1816; the contracting parties were Jacob ALBERT and Miss Patsy YOUNG. Mr. ALBERT was a soldier of the War of 1812. The ceremony was performed by Abia LEE, a Justice of the Peace. The first child born was a daughter of the above parties. Family records show that Nancy ALBERT was their first child. This was in 1817."

I would like to have further information from members or anyone else on this subject.

Sincerely,

/s/ CARL ALBERT

So there you have it. This question is fast assuming the porportions of those other age-old questions - Which came first, the chicken or the egg? and What did the Governor of North Carolina say to the Governor of South Carolina? If anyone else wants to throw their hat in the ring, be our guests. Since Mr. ALBERT asks for further information on the subject, he can be addressed at Federal Building, Third and Carl Albert Parkway, McAlester, OK 74501.
