

French Creek State Park Trip September 19-20, 2020
Willistown Troop 78

OVERVIEW: While the Covid-19 virus is keeping us from the beach as planned it will not stop us from a weekend of camping, hiking, and canoeing. We have secured two group camping sites next to each other at French Creek State Park which will be sufficient for 60 people, this should give us the space we need to stay distant. We will spend the day hiking a trail and taking some canoes around the lake. This is a weather dependent trip. Precautions will be taken to keep Scouts in small groups, six feet apart and we will wear masks all weekend. Scouts will each have their own individual tent issued by the troop and they will be spaced apart. For meals, all plates and utensils will be disposable, and anyone cooking will wear gloves and masks. There will be no buffet style food service or shared condiments. Neither the showers nor the pool will be open to us.

TRANSPORTATION AND LOGISTICS: Travel by your own personal car. Be at the campsite by 7AM on Saturday morning. We will leave the campsite Sunday by 9AM. If you are dropping off your scout, please park and walk you and your scout and his gear to the campsite.

ONLY completed forms will be given driving and campsite directions via email.
