

Hill, June R.

June Rose Hill, 75, of Black Lake, passed away on July 25, 2005, at her home. She was born on March 15, 1930 in Detroit to William and Helen (Kozfka) Brazier. She married Walter Hill on October 8, 1949. He preceded her in death in 1990. In the mid-1980's, June retired from her position as office manager at Express Freight. June was an active member and volunteer of the Onaway VFW Ladies Auxiliary and served as junior vice. She was a member of St. Paul's Catholic Church in Onaway and also helped Bearinger Township with voter registration. June loved to spend the day with her lady friends going to the casino and out for dinner. She enjoyed outings with the Red Hat Society. She is survived by her daughter, Kathy Ingersoll and her husband, Ed, of Fowlerville; son, Bruce Hill and his wife, Carol, of Taylor; grandchildren, Lauren, Michael, Allen, and Kristen; great-granddaughter, Gabrielle; and brother, William Brazier Jr., of Las Vegas. A funeral Mass was celebrated today at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Onaway. Fr. Clarence Smolinski presided. Interment was in St. Paul's Catholic Cemetery in Onaway. Memorial contributions are suggested to the Onaway ambulance service or the VFW Ladies Auxiliary in Onaway.
