ARTICLE FOUR – MEMBERS AND MEMBERS’ MEETINGS

4.01 Membership

Each and every Owner shall automatically be a Member of the Association without the necessity of any further action on his part, subject to the terms of the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, and the Rules and Regulations with respect to the Common Properties from time to time promulgated by the Association. Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from the interest of such Owner in any portion of the Property. Ownership of any portion of the Property shall be the sole qualification for being a Member.

No person or entity shall be a Member by reason of Ownership of any Easement, right-of-way, or mineral interests in any particular piece of Property. Any person or entity that holds an interest in and to all or any part of the Property merely as a security for the performance of an obligation shall not be a Member.

4.02 Voting Rights

Members entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote per unit on each matter submitted to a Members vote of the Members.

Where there are multiple Owners of a condominium it is not intended by any provision of the Declaration or these Bylaws that each of said Owners shall be entitled to cast the votes allocated to such condominium nor may fractional votes be cast. When more than one person or entity owns the interest or interests in any condominium, as required for Membership in the Association, each and every person or entity shall exercise their vote as they among themselves, collectively determined and they shall designate one person to cast the vote or execute a written consent, as applicable. If such Owners are unable to agree among themselves as to how one vote per condominium shall be cast, they shall forfeit the right to vote on the matter in question. If more than one person or entity purports to exercise the voting rights with respect to any such condominium on any matter in question, none of such votes shall be counted in tabulating the vote on such matter and such votes shall be deemed void.

4.03 Transfer and Severability of Membership

Membership may not be severed from the property nor may it be in any way transferred, pledged, mortgaged or alienated except upon the sale or assignment of the Owner's interest in all or any part of the property and then only to the purchaser or assignee as the new Owner thereof. Any attempt to make a prohibited severance, transfer, pledge, mortgage or alienation shall be void and of no further force or effect, and will be so reflected upon the books and records of the Association. Any transfer of the fee title to a condominium, tract or parcel of real estate out of or part of the properties shall automatically operate to transfer Membership to the new Owner thereof.

4.04 Resignation

Any Member may resign by filing a written resignation with the Secretary of the Association, but such resignation shall not relieve the Member so resigning of the obligation to pay any dues, assessments, or other charges theretofore accrued and unpaid. Such resignation shall have no force or effect upon any transferee(s) of the property.

4.05 Annual Meetings

The time, location, and date of the annual meeting of the Members of the Association, for the purpose of electing Directors and for the transaction of any other business as may come before the meeting, shall be set by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. The annual meeting must take place in Dallas County, Texas. If the day fixed for the annual meeting is a legal holiday in the State of Texas, such meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day. If the election of Directors is not held on the day thus designated for any annual meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the Members as soon thereafter as possible.

4.06 Action without Meeting

Any action that may be taken at a meeting of the Members under any provision of the Texas Business Organizations Code, Texas Property Code or any other State or Federal Law may be taken without a meeting so long as that action is permissible under State and Federal Law. Action may be taken without a meeting if each person entitled to vote on the action signs a written consent stating the action may be taken and the consent is filed with the Secretary of the Association. Such written consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting. Each such signed consent, or a true copy thereof, shall be placed in the Company Record Book.

4.07 Failure to Call Annual Meeting

If the Board of Directors fails to call the annual meeting of Members at the designated time, a Member of the Association may demand that the meeting be held. The demand must be made in writing via certified mail return receipt requested and sent to the registered agent of the Association. A copy of the notice must be sent to each Owner who is a Member of the Association. If no meeting is called within 30 days pursuant to the Owners demand three or more Owners may form an election committee. The committee shall file written notice of its formation with the Dallas County Clerk. The notice must state that the election committee has been formed; that its sole purpose is to call a meeting of the Owners for the purposes of electing Board Members; the name and residential address of each committee Member; the name of the subdivision; and it must be signed and notarized by each committee Member. The committee may call a meeting of the Members of the Association for the sole purpose of electing Board Members. The committee must hold a successful election within four months or it is dissolved.

Notice of the meeting may also be provided via email, fax, or on the website at least 72 hours before the date of the meeting. The notice shall be addressed to each recipient at such address as appears in the Association's records or as the recipient has given the Association for the purpose of notice. Notice of the reconvening of an adjourned meeting is not necessary unless the meeting is adjourned more than thirty (30) days past the date stated in the notice, in which case notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of any special meeting.

4.10 Special Meetings

A special Member's meeting may be called at any time by the President, the Board of Directors, or one or more Members holding ten percent or more of all the votes entitled to be cast within the Association. Such meeting may be called for any purpose. Notice shall be sent in the matter described in Article 4.09 of these Bylaws.

4.11(a) Quorum of Members

The presence, in person or by proxy, of Members entitled to cast, or of proxies entitled to cast, at least sixty-seven percent (67%) of the votes of all Owners, regardless of class, shall constitute a quorum for any action except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration or these Bylaws.

4.11(b) Adjournment for Lack of Quorum

No business may be transacted in the absence of a quorum, or upon the withdrawal of enough Members to leave less than a quorum, other than to adjourn the meeting from time to time by the vote of a majority of the votes represented at the meeting.

4.12 Voting at an Election of Directors

A Member entitled to vote at an election of Directors is entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, for as many persons as there are Directors to be elected and for whose election the Member has a right to vote.

4.13 Proxies

At all meetings of Members, each Member may vote in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the secretary or the Association's managing agent at least two days before the appointed time of each meeting. All proxies must comply with the provisions of the Texas Business Organizations Code. A Proxy shall be revocable and shall be valid until the adjournment of the meeting for which they were given, unless such meeting is adjourned and reconvened, in which case the proxy shall remain valid until such reconvened meeting is adjourned. A proxy may not be irrevocable for greater than 11 months. Should a proxy be irrevocable for greater than 11 months then the proxy shall be declared void. Should a proxy not be signed and dated by the owner providing the proxy, then the proxy shall be declared void and shall have no force and effect.

4.14 Means of Voting

ARTICLE EIGHT – REMEDIES FOR BREACH AND RECOVERY OF COSTS

8.01 Notice.

Before the Association may exercise many of its remedies for a violation of the Dedicatory Instruments of the Association (hereinafter "Documents") or damage to the Property, the Association must give an Owner written notice via First Class Mail. Notices are also required before an Owner is liable to the Association for certain charges, including reimbursement of attorney's fees incurred by the Association.

8.02 Remedies.

The remedies provided in this Article for breach of the Documents are cumulative and not exclusive. In addition to other rights and remedies provided by the Documents and Bylaws.

8.03 Nuisance.

The result of every act or omission that violates any provision of the Documents is a nuisance, and any remedy allowed by law against a nuisance, either public or private, is applicable against the violation.

8.04 Fines and Recovery of Costs

The Association may levy reasonable charges, as a Special Individual Assessment, against an Owner and their Unit if the Owner or Resident, or the Owner or Resident's family, guests, employees, agents, or contractors violate a provision of the Documents or require recover of costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, pursuant to Section 8.08 of these Bylaws. Fines may be levied for each act of violation or for each day a violation continues, and does not constitute a waiver or discharge of the Owner's obligations under the Documents.

8.05 Suspension.

The Association may suspend the right of Owners and Residents to use Common Properties for any period during which the Owner or Resident, or the Owner or Resident's family, guests, employees, agents, or contractors violate the Documents. A suspension does not constitute a waiver or discharge of the Owner's obligations under the Documents.

8.06 Suit.

Failure to comply with the Documents will be grounds for an action to recover damages or for injunctive relief to cause any such violation to be remedied, or both. Prior to commencing any legal proceeding, the Association will give the defaulting party reasonable notice and an opportunity to cure the violation.

8.07 Board Discretion.

The Board may use its sole discretion in determining whether to pursue a violation of the Documents, provided the Board does not act in an arbitrary or capricious manner. In evaluating a particular violation, the Board may determine that under the particular circumstances (1) the Association's position is not sufficiently strong to justify taking any or further action; (2) the provision being enforced is or may be construed as inconsistent with applicable law; (3) although a technical violation may exist, it is not of such a material nature as to be objectionable to a reasonable person or to justify expending the Association's resources; or (4) that enforcement is not in the Association's best interests, based on hardship, expense, or other reasonable criteria.

8.08 Recovery of Costs.

The costs of curing or abating a violation or responding to actions taken by an owner in defense of the Documents of the Association are at the expense of the Owner that took action requiring such defense. If legal assistance is obtained to enforce any provision of the Documents, defend the Documents, defend the actions of the Board of Directors or Association acting in their capacity as members of the board, or in any legal proceeding (whether or not suit is brought) the Association is entitled to recover from an Owner all reasonable and necessary costs incurred by it in such action, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Such fees and costs shall be levied against the Owner as a special individual assessment in accordance with Section 8.04 of these Bylaws.

8.09 No Waiver.

The Association and every Owner has the right to enforce all Restrictions, Conditions, Covenants, liens, and charges now or hereafter imposed by the Documents. Failure by the Association or by any Owner to enforce a provision of the Documents is not a waiver of the right to do so thereafter. If the Association does waive the right to enforce a provision, that waiver does not impair the Association's right to enforce any other part of the Documents at any future time. No Officer or Director of the Association is liable to any Owner for the failure to enforce any of the Documents at any time.
