INSTRUCTORS

Elmer Dickens, JD, President, Member spent two years as a corrections officer at a maximum-security penitentiary where he was assigned to Disciplinary Segregation and the Death Row Unit for one year. He has served as the General Counsel for the Washington County [Oregon] Sheriff's Office for over 15 years. Mr. Dickens also serves as the General Counsel to the Oregon State Sheriff's Association, and is the primary author of the Oregon State Sheriff's Association Jail Standards. He is also a faculty member of Americans for Effective Law Enforcement. Mr. Dickens has experience litigating in both State and Federal courts on a wide variety of law enforcement and corrections issues, and is admitted to practice in all Oregon courts, the US District Court of Oregon, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court.

Carrie Hill, JD is an attorney and criminal justice consultant who has been actively involved in corrections for over 20 years. After leaving her position as General Counsel for the Utah Department of Corrections, Ms. Hill has focused on providing training and consulting for a variety of private & public entities on national, regional, State, & local levels. Education provides a key component in Ms. Hill's contributions to corrections, and she provides legal consultation, defense of correctional facilities, management, and staff. She also provides experienced and informed guidance in the form of legal advice and expert witness services. Ms. Hill is the former editor of Corrections Managers' Report.

Robert M Gordon, Sheriff (Ret.) Sheriff Gordon joined the Washington County Sheriff's Office in 1979, after serving four years in the United States Marine Corps. Prior to his retirement in late 2011, he held the positions of Jail Deputy, Senior Deputy, Sergeant, Lieutenant, Patrol Commander, Jail Commander, and Chief Deputy Sheriff. For the last ten years of his career, he served as the Sheriff of Washington County. Mr. Gordon has a B.A. degree in Human Resource Management from George Fox University, and held dual executive certificates from DPSST in police and local corrections. He attended Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy. Mr. Gordon remains active in public safety leadership instruction and occasionally assists agencies with leadership team building and cultural change. Until recently, he was employed by an inmate communications provider, serving as their National Director of Account Management.
