

Fire Inspector I Certification Course

When:

February 3, 2020 0800-1800

February 4, 2020 0800-1800

February 5, 2020 0800-1800

February 6, 2020 0800-1700

(Test at end of class on 02/06/2020)

Where:

Pascua Pueblo Fire Department
4631 W. Calle Torim
Tucson, AZ 85757

Cost:

$175.00 per student

Cost includes all course fees and certification fee.
Room, Board and travel expenses are not included.
All fees are transferrable to another student but non-refundable.

Course Text:

IFSTA Fire Inspection and Code Enforcement 7th Edition.

How to Register: Go to www.azfma.net

Contact Captain Derek De La Torre at Derek.DeLaTorre@pascuayaqui-nsn.gov or Jose Tellez at (520) 730-4985 if you have any questions

Books are not included in cost. Each student must provide their own book.

Seating limited to 30 students Registration and Payment Deadline: January 22, 2020

To register for the class, go to the Arizona Fire Marshals Association website at www.azfma.net. You will be able to register and pay for the course online at that site. A link for the course registration will be posted on the home page.

- This 32-contact hour course offering meets the requirements for Fire Inspector I through the Arizona Center for Fire Service Excellence and the Arizona Fire Marshals Association.
- An AzCFSE certification exam will be conducted the end of day after the conclusion of the course on Thursday, February 6 at 1500.
- This course will be taught from the IFSTA Fire Inspection and Code Enforcement 7th Edition.
- Students must provide their own book or a printed or electronic version of the handouts sent prior to the course via Dropbox.

All applicants must provide a valid e-mail and EIN when registering

Pima Community College credit will be offered as FSC124- Fire Prevention.
Registration will be completed on the first day of class