

The Youth Empowerment Summit-YES, Navigator Paid Fellowship program offers individuals the opportunity to make learning engaging, fun, and impactful for students who need it the most. Serving as a teacher at our partner school sites throughout the Jacksonville and Jacksonville Beaches areas, Navigators are instrumental in achieving the YES vision of changing the ways student think about themselves, their future and the world.

Each Navigator is matched with another Navigator to teach the class in pairs. Each YES class will have supervision from a teacher and a Youth Empowerment Summit-YES representative.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the deadline to apply for the Navigator Fellowship?

A: Our Fellowship runs year-round, and you can apply anytime.

Q: When will I be contacted about my application?

A: We contact potential Navigators typically within 24 hours and a maximum of 48 hours

Q: Are Navigators given preferences for which partner site they want to work at? Location?

A: Our biggest priority is matching our partners with the Navigators that will best fit their needs including the school culture, previous experience, and/or language specifications. That being said, YES does take into consideration Navigator's preferences for audience and location throughout the selection process. If location is a pain point for you, please let our team know during the application process

Q: What is the compensation for Navigators?

A: Navigators are compensated $25 per class they teach. Each Navigator is paid monthly.

Q: What is the length of the Fellowship?

A: Each YES class lasts 16 weeks (each class is 60 minutes) and is typically as long as a normal school semester. Times and dates can vary depending on the school or organization. The Fellowship commitment is a minimum of 6 months.

Q: How long is training?

A: Our initial training program is 12 hours, yet there is much more professional development that will come along throughout the course of the year

The Application Process

1

INITIAL APPLICATION

The first round of the application process entails completing background information questions (contact information, education, relevant skills and experience), answering short-answer questions, providing the names and contact information of two references, and sending a resume.

2

DEMO LESSON VIDEO

In the second round of the application process, we require a submission of a 5-minute demo video lesson and corresponding sample lesson plan. We will provide 3-5 objectives to choose from and are looking for your ability to engage the camera and organize your ideas.

3

VIDEO CHAT INTERVIEW

The final round of the application process is a video chat interview. During this round, we also require the submission of a reference form from a previous employer/manager, volunteer supervisor, or professor.
