

Breakie, Ethel M.

Ethel M. "Marge" Breakie, 87, a longtime resident of Jeddo, passed away on Saturday, July 17, 2004, at the Mercy Hospital in Port Huron. She was born on November 5, 1916 in Bingham Township in Huron County, the daughter of the late Fred and Ethel (Dobson) LePla. Marge married John E. "Jack" Breakie on December 12, 1936 in Ubly. He preceded her in death on September 15, 1991. Marge was a member of the Jeddo United Methodist Church and a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star Lexington Chapter #137. She is survived by a daughter, Shirley Vincent and her husband, Gerald, of Bad Axe; a son, Gary Breakie and his wife, Judy, of Jeddo; many grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Ilene Breakie, of Dover, Delaware; one sister, Florence Apley, of Bad Axe; and two sisters-in-law, Leda LePla and Gladys LePla. Marge was preceded in death by two sons, Frederick and John Breakie. A memorial service will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, July 30, 2004, at the Jeddo United Methodist Church. The Rev. Catherine Hiner will officiate. There will be a luncheon at the church in honor of Marge immediately following the service. Interment services have been conducted next to her husband in the Sunset Memorial Gardens in Fort Gratiot. Arrangements were by the Pomeroy Funeral Home in Croswell. Memorials in memory of Marge may be made to the church.
