Icaria Creek Winery was started in 1998, and the first vintage release, a 1997 Cabernet Sauvignon Alexander Valley earned 4 stars from Restaurant Wine Publisher Ronn Weigand. Icaria can be found just to the north of Silver Oak in Alexander Valley, Sonoma County.

Deep and dark garnet coloring with mixed fruit aromas. Bold yet soft with red and black cherry flavors.

BALDASSARI

The 2015 Russian River Valley Pinot Noir is a blend of grapes grown from multiple sites from within the Russian River Valley appellation. We chose vineyards sites with unique growing conditions that would coax out the full potential of the Pinot Noir grape.

Strawberry-cream flavors give this wine a lush broadness on the palate, with a grippy backbone of tannin and freshness of acidity. Peppery on the nose, slightly smoky with deep, rich berry flavor

McEVOY RANCH

The 2016 Samuun Vermentino di Toscana is from the Biccocchi family vineyards located southwest of Massa Marittima in western Maremma. The Biccocchi family has been producing grapes on their farm since 1851, all grown organically and biodynamically.

Aromas of white nectarine, lemon oil, fresh pear, and a delightful saltiness due to the vineyard's proximity to the coast. Flavors reveal themselves in layers of grapefruit, guava, quince, and wet stone.

SMITH STORY WINE CELLARS

Helluva Vineyard is tucked up against the waterfall of forest which flows down along the western edge of the valley. Smith Story Wine Cellars is based the Russian River Valley AVA and has a second tasting room in the Anderson Valley AVA

Bright red stone fruit, lifted floral notes and a kick of orange zest are all nicely woven together; loads of red berry fruit intertwined with baking spices and subtle notes of forest floor and rich mineral.

Deep and dark garnet coloring with mixed fruit aromas. Bold yet soft with red and black cherry flavors.

Sans Liege is winemakers, Curt Schalchlin's search for independence while tending his vineyards from Paso Robles to Solvang. This wine exhibits nuances of both Old and New world with savory and spiced flavors.

48% Grenache, 28% Syrah, 23% Mourvedre, 1% ViognierDense with the scents of kirsch, oolong tea, and cinnamon bark; fennel and anise spiced sausage along with the crumbs of your morning biscuit that was smeared with strawberry preserves.

McEVOY RANCH

The 2016 Samuun Vermentino di Toscana is from the Bicocchi family vineyards located southwest of Massa Marittima in western Maremma. The Bicocchi family has been producing grapes on their farm since 1851, all grown organically and biodynamically.

Aromas of white nectarine, lemon oil, fresh pear, and a delightful saltiness due to the vineyard's proximity to the coast. Flavors reveal themselves in layers of grapefruit, guava, quince, and wet stone.

It was Louis Metaireau who first began leaving his wines sur lie (on their fine lees) through the winter. The 23-acre vineyard in the heart of Muscadet Sèvre et Maine enjoys perfect exposure between the two famed rivers that lend their names to the AOC, and ranges in vine age from 30 years old to a parcel planted in 1937.

This zesty, crisp white is textbook Muscadet. Lemon and green apple aromas have an edge of oyster shell and saline. Tart lemon flavors awakens the mouth and lime notes appear around the edges
