

IASHEP'S MILITARY AND FIRST RESPONDER DISCOUNTS

At the International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP), we acknowledge the sacrifices made by women and men who serve our country in the military or as a first responder. We are honored to be able to offer members and students in all branches of the United States Military or First Responders a 10% tuition discount, which applies to our membership application and our online professional development courses. This discount also applies to Military Reservist and National Guardsmen on active-duty and military personnel who have left the military service. Proof of serving our great country is required and covered in the same manner.

Proof of serving our country requires a copy of your DD-214 or other recognized government identification cards like as Department of Veterans Affairs medical card. Or proof of your Department of Veterans Affairs disability rating.

Special Discounts

A 15% discount is offered to military veterans who have a service connected disability of 10% to 40%

A 20% discount is offered to military veterans who have a service connected disability of 50% or higher.

The discount is our way of saying "thank you" for your service to our country.

To assist you in achieving your civilian career goals in a way that will lessen the burden on your family, the International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP) military tuition discount* to active duty and reserve U.S. service members and their spouses.

The International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP), offers a variety of certified specialty designations programs that will immediately impact your military career or civilian profession. Our International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP), programs increase your opportunities for promotion into leadership roles and boost your future earning capacity. You can pursue the certified program that will help you achieve your career goals.

In addition to our military tuition discount, benefits offered through the G.I. Bill and student loans may be available to help you with affording the costs of your education.

Are You Eligible?

No matter where you are, at home or abroad, you can apply for and access the International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP), certified programs with a computer and an internet connection. Active duty and military reservists/National Guard must provide proof of military service. Military spouses must provide dependent ID card or sponsor's DoD ID card with expiration date. Retired or members who have served in the United States Military Service or First Responders must also provide evidence of serving our great country or communities.

To receive these discounts you must make our Director of Membership Development Mr. Thomas Etter tetter@iashep.org aware that you meet the requirements for discount by giving him this discount code "ISERVEDUSA"
Notice: Should you not make this code available at the time of enrollment, then no discounts will be given since IASHEP has a large number of inquiries and it would be impossible to track everyone applying for these discounts.

For more information about our military tuition discount for service members and their spouses, please call and speak with our Executive Director / CEO Mr. John F. Podojil at (520) 568-5565 or email jpodojil@iashep.org

Other Benefits that are Offered to Veterans

At IASHEP, we believe “You Protect Our Country, We Protect Your Wallet”® and our mission is to always find new ways to demonstrate that every day.