New Dorp Legion Unit Elects Staff

Louis J. Somma, who served in the Army during World War II, last night was elected commander of Kells-Grennie Post, American Legion. He lives at 47 Woodland Ave., Great Kills.

His staff consists of Louis Lomangino, Phillip H. Kolb and Raymond Swanson, vice-commanders; Edward H. Tietjen, treasurer; Louis Pietrangelo, outgoing commander, chaplain, and James Wicker, sergeant-at-arms. Tietjen, Pietrangelo and John H. Kreider were named trustees.

Frank J. Rooney, a past county commander, conducted an informal installation ceremony.

Pasquale E. Di Vernieri, county commander, will officiate at an induction program Aug. 10 in the New Dorp post headquarters.

Joseph R. Miller was named chairman of a committee to arrange a picnic Sept. 1 on the post grounds. The next meeting will be July 12.
