

THE PUTTING WIZARD AWARD

Awarded to the players who had the fewest average putts per round with a minimum of eight tournaments played. The Wizard is

TODD WEATHERLY

Todd averaged 29.34 putts over 23 tournaments played. I would like to say it's because he missed a lot of greens and puttied from the fringe frequently but I played with him enough to know that's not the case.

The man is a good putter.
