

AUTUMN HOOKS

Instructor

Autumn started dancing at the age of 3 in Southern California where she trained in multiple levels of the Checchetti Ballet System. For 10 years ballet was her first love, and at the age of 13 she began to train in other styles of dance such as Hip Hop, Lyrical, Jazz, Modern and Contemporary. She has trained under some of the best including Liz Imperio, Tina Landon, Kayla Kalbfleish, Keone Madrid, Dee Caspary, KJ Gonzales and many more.

She was a member of the dance company Unity Dance Ensemble, directed by Tessandra Chavez, for 6 Years performing throughout Southern California. She has been a background dancer to names such as Patti LaBelle and Charice, and has been an assistant to choreographers on the television series Abby Lee's Ultimate Dance Competition. She has had the opportunity to dance along side the Martha Graham Dance Company in performing the work 'Panarama', choreographed by the late Martha Graham and another new adaption of 'American Document'.

Autumn is currently the proudest assistant coach to the Westlake High School Dance Team. She also teaches and choreographs across California and is an adjudicator for various dance competitions. She most recently was invited to Mexico City to adjudicate for ONP México's Nationals.

Autumn earned her BS in Apparel Design and Production from Cal State Northridge, and now currently combines her passions of design and dance across the United States.

We are thrilled to welcome Autumn to our Aspire Faculty!
