THE LEMBA/SENA CLANS

The Lemba Clans, in accordance with the order of seniority of clans or houses are as follows:

- 1) Buba/Juda,
- 2) Hamisi/Hamese,
- 3) Bakali/Bakari/Pakgadi/Rabakali/Rapakgadi,
- 4) Seremani/Seremane/Solomon, Shlomo / Suleiman,
- 5) Tovhakale/Thobakgale/Tovakare,
- 6) Mhani/Mani,
- 7) Hadzhi/Hadji/Rahadji,
- 8) Sadiki/Sathekge/Sadiq/Tzadik,
- 9) Ngavi/Zungunde,
- 10) Mange/Nemanga,
- 11) Salefu/Sarefu,
- 12) Thinyaladzi/Chinyaladzi.

There is no faction fighting for leadership. Lembas/Senas rule in turns according to clans or houses.

THE UNITY OF THE LEMBAS

Lembas may practice different religions, be it Judaism, Christianity, Islam... Speak different languages or join different organizations, be it political, social or economical, but are unified by their culture.

Where do Lembas live

- Lembas are known by different names at different times and places:
- Those in Zimbabwe and South Africa are known as Lembas, Bashabi, Basoni, Balungu, Lemba Jews or Black Jews
- Those in Rwanda and Burundi are known as Tutsis
- Those in Uganda are known as Abajudaya
- Those in Ethiopia are known as Falashas or Orities
- Those in Malawi, Kenya and Tanzania are known as Bamwenye
- Those in Congo, especially the Khasai and Shaba provinces are known as Ben-Lembas or Balubas
- Those in Nigeria are known as Ibos
- Those in Ghana are known as the Ashanti or Sefwi
- Those in Dalagoa bay (Mozambique) are called Senas
- We have the Jews in Israel
